NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE Albany Express speaks of the absconding Snaith as an "assisted" emigrant, and intimates that there are bigger reputations than his own at stake which his absence is expected to protect.

THE sales of tickets to the inauguration ball and promenade concert will amount to $70,000 when the money is all in. This pays the entire expense of the inaugeration and leaves a surplus of $20,000.

MR. CLEVELAND was cheered yesterday all the way from Washington to New York. He had never before seen the people so enthusiastic. His trip to Washington four years ago was a very tame affair comparatively.

SIR JULIAN PAUNCEFORTE is to start for the United States the latter part of March, to assume the office of British Minister. He will return to London for the summer, and bring his family to Washington in the fall.

OFFICIAL figures show the debt of Canada to be $236,000,000. It has increased 120 per cent in fourteen years, but the Minister of finance thinks the Dominion has valuable internal improvements to show for the increase.

EX SPEAKER CARLISLE'S gavel is missing. It was made of an elephant's tooth and was highly valued by the Kentucky statesman, who intended to carry it home with him. He is inconsolable over the loss, as there is no hope for him of ever receiving another.

ASSISTANT Secretaries Maynard and Thompson and Solicitor General Jenks have tendered their resignations, to take effect as soon as their services can be dispensed with. These gentlemen rightly interpret the will of the people as expressed at the late election.

THERE are fifteen gentlemen in Washington who want the office of Public Printer. There are 15,000 throughout the country who believe themselves as well qualified for the position as the man who is going to be bounced.

JUDAS ISCARIOT was arrested in New York yesterday, locked in the Tombs, and afterwards fined $5 for peddling gingerbread under the shadow of the Franklin statue. The occupation was honest, and the countenance of Franklin, who met his future wife while munching bread upon the streets, smiled benignantly upon him, but his name and the bag that he carried provoked the wrath of the court.

THE Mayor of Brooklyn is a member, ex officio, of the Kings County Board of Supervisors. The fact suggests a way to escape the impending deadlock in the Ulster county board. The City of Kingston has not an adequate representation in the Board in proportion to population and wealth, and our Mayors have all been men who would make good Supervisors.

R. C. JACKSON, ex-Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, second division, is being urged for re-appointment. The service has fallen into a shocking condition of inefficiency since his removal for a partisan purpose, and his restoration is asked for by Republicans and Democrats alike. Mr. Jackson was the founder of the system, and is thoroughly versed in all its details.

ROCHESTER'S three great breweries, the "Bartholomay," "Genesee" and "Rochester," were purchased yesterday by the English syndicate which is engaged in buying up all the profitable breweries in the state. The Bartholomay brought $2,500,000, the others $500,000 each. The buyers look for a profitable trade under the anti-license regime of David B. Hill.

THERE is a big rush for the new gold fields of Lower California. Workmen are leaving a new railroad on which they were employed near San Diego in a body, and the work has stopped. The gold area covers 100 miles square. The gold dust brought to San Diego and Ensenada Tuesday is valued at $13,000. Here is a chance for the new administration to start a territorial expansion policy. The United States will soon be turning greedy eyes upon this rich strip of Mexican territory.

THE Democratic Utica Observer states that the Democratic Mayor-elect of that city, Samuel J. Barrows, did not vote at the election. He rode by the polls in the afternoon and was hailed with a request to come and vote, but rode on, saying he would return. He was seen no more. He was to have been challenged as a resident of Dakota, where he is prosecuting his divorce suit. The Observer should see that he does not take the office, which is only for citizens of New York.

THE Senate met yesterday and adjourned, but in the afternoon a caucus of Republican members was held and a committee appointed to arrange the Republican share of the committees. There are only six new members in the present Senate, Wolcott of Colorado, McMillan of Michigan, Higgins of Delaware, Washburn of Minnesota, Marston of New Hampshire, and Barbour of Virginia. Marston is filling a vacancy for three months. Two years ago not less than fourteen changes took place.

KING MILAN of Servia has turned over his throne, crown and scepter to his thirteen-year-old son, who is to reign as Alexander I. It is to be hoped that the new monarch will lead a more exemplary career than his father, whose scandalous treatment of his wife, Natalie, is known the world over. Alexander has been with his mother in exile, and refused to leave her till called to the throne. He recently gave as a toast at an army banquet the name of his mother. Natalie will go home to Belgrade when the new government becomes established.

THE Detroit Free Press states that Postmaster General Dickinson is not personally disappointed over the result of the election, as he intended to leave Washington and return to his law practice on the 5th of March anyway. He had accepted office at a great sacrifice. The country knows very well that Dickinson entered into a contract to bring Mr. Cleveland the electoral vote of Michigan. Of course he failed to deliver the goods. But he is an able lawyer, and his practice is said to be worth $50,000 a year. Hence he wanted to go home, and was very glad to see Mr. Wanamaker.

SECRETARIES BESIEGED BY CALLERS.

Impromptu Receptions; Walker Blaine Occupies a Seat in State Department.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, March 7. — Secretaries Blaine, Proctor and Tracy came to their respective offices early this morning, but if they had any idea of attending to official business they must have abandoned it when they saw the number of people awaiting them. Senators, Representatives and high officials came in twos and threes, some brought friends and many ladies were among the callers. Russell Harrison, with a party of Montana people, made the rounds of the Departments. They called on the Secretaries only to pay their respects, and had no designs upon the officials. General Sherman and Admiral Porter were among the notables who attended the impromptu receptions. No official changes have yet been recorded in the subordinate offices; but Walker Blaine occupied the seat vacated by First Assistant Secretary Rives in the Department of State, and Thomas Sherman, who formerly served as Secretary Blaine's Private Secretary, was endeavoring to protect the Secretary from inroads of the public. Both of them have voluntarily taken hold to help smooth the way for the new administration, but in neither case has an appointment been made.

In the War Department William C. Endicott, Jr., continues to fill the post of Private Secretary. His father, the late Secretary of War, called upon his successor this morning, presumably to supply him with information respecting current business. Senators Paddock and Hawley, and Representative Dorsey, of Nebraska, were among Secretary Proctor's callers, and they subsequently called upon Secretaries Blaine and Tracy.

No appointment has not yet been made to fill the Private Secretaryship in the Navy Department, vacated by Mr. Fletcher, and the assistant is discharging the routine duties of the office. Ex-Senator Chandler called about mid-day upon Secretary Tracy, and had quite a long chat with him.

In all of the Executive Departments located in the State, War and Navy building the changes likely to result from the change in politics of the administration are few in number, because a long line of precedents favoring the continuation of the bureau chiefs in the State Department, while in the others the superior posts are mostly filled by detailed Army and Navy officers.

Assistant Secretary Thompson was Acting Secretary of the Treasury, to-day, at the request of Secretary Windom, who announced his intention of devoting the day to the reception of visitors. A large number of Senators and ex-members of Congress availed themselves of the opportunity afforded and called to pay their respects; and throughout the day the room of the Secretary was filled with visitors. No distinction was made in favor of politicians and the general public was largely represented.

The callers at the White House to-day outnumbered those of yesterday. It was about 9:30 o'clock when the President made his appearance in the official part of the house, and received the Inter-State Commerce Commissioners with the State Railroad Commissioners now in the City. Following them were about 1,000 persons who wished to shake the President's hand. When this task was over the President climbed the stairs only to find himself confronted with Senators, Representatives and office-seekers in scores. The greater number of them really called to pay their respects, but another and not inconsiderable number could not let pass the opportunity to whisper a word in favor of their particular candidates for various offices.

Soon after noon the Michigan delegation called by appointment. As they have not yet agreed upon the man and place they want, they did nothing more than exchange courtesies with the head of the new administration. After that, and until luncheon, the President's time was taken up in hand-shaking. Among those received were the Colored Editors and a Texas delegation. Ex-Postmaster General Kay, ex-Minister Sheneck and Senator Jones, of Arkansas, were among the morning callers. Mr. Harrison stated to-day he would have been very much pleased to have appointed in his Cabinet some one from California, and at an early date he suggested to the people of the Pacific Slope to unite upon two or three names from which he might select. They neglected to do this till quite late and finally when they did present some names, they stated specifically that no other positions in the Cabinet would be acceptable to them except the Secretary of the Interior or Attorney General. As matters in respect to these to offices had been settled or narrowed down to a couple of names from other states, it was impossible for him to accommodate them. This is the reason why the Pacific Slope proper did not have any representative in the Cabinet, as President Harrison himself had expected and hoped for a long time.

First Comptroller Durham, Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller and Fourth Auditor Shelley have tendered their resignations to Secretary Windom, to take effect at his convenience. Messrs. Mason, of West-Virginia, Montgomery, of Ohio, and Evans, of Kentucky, are the leading candidates for the position of Internal Revenue Commissioner.

Treasurer Hyatt will tender his resignation to the President at the first opportunity. Charles E. Coon, formerly Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, is reported to be an applicant for the position of Comptroller of the Currency. It is said, however, that Secretary Windom has requested him to resume his former position.

Mr. Buchard, formerly Director of the Mint, was a caller on the Secretery this morning and is said to be an applicant for this office, but Director Kimball has not signified his intention to resign until his term has expired. It is expected most of the Democratic bureau officers will send in their resignations and give the Secretary an opportunity of naming their successors.

Cleveland at His Law Office.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, March 7.—Ex-President Cleveland drove down in a carriage, this morning, from the Victoria Hotel to his law office in William-street. He was accompanied by Messrs. Stetson and MacVeagh.

IN CEILING INVESTIGATION, TO-DAY.

Expert who Examined Snaith's Account at Bank on the Stand.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, March 7.—The examination of James Yalden, the expert accountant, in relation to Snaith's accounts with the National Commercial Bank, of Albany, was the first work of the Special Ceiling Investigating Committee, to-day. Yalden testified that he had visited the Commercial Bank and had been afforded facilties to examine Snaith's accounts. He had examined the accounts made between June, 1888, and March 4, 1889. On June 11, the credit balance was $528.73. On March 4, 1889, it was $39.92. The account divided itself into three classes—cash, discounts and State deposits. Between the dates named there was deposited in checks $150,255. Of this $32,872 were discounts, leaving the net cash deposited $117,283.

Matthew Hale, of counsel for Snaith, here desired to have entered on the record a formal protest against what he termed the unfairness of this proceeding. All he asked for his client was the ordinary rights of an American citizen.

Mr. Aspinwall, of the Committee, objected to any statement by Mr. Hale.

Chairman Fish directed counsel to desist, and ordered the stenographer not to take down any remarks of his.

Mr. Hale—"Then you refuse to allow my protest to be entered on the record?"

Mr. Fish—"The Committee has already decided that it will not allow any witness to appear by counsel. Counsel must stop."

Mr. Seward said: "If Snaith was here we would accord him the ordinary right of an American citizen by examining him."

OUTLAWS ATTACK RAILROAD MEN,

But are Worsted Finally and Two of Them Mortally Wounded.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, March 7.—Advices from East-Tennessee say a party of mountain desperadoes, headed by the notorious Clabe Watson, Lee Watson, William Turner and Judson Bell, attacked the camps of Hoy and Rivence railroad contractors, near Cumberland Gap, a few days ago. The ruffians were drunk and armed with Winchester rifles and large Colt's revolvers. They first overran the commissary department and ate or destroyed all the provisions. They then went to the shanties and cabins occupied by the negro laborers and beat several of them nearly to death. By this time Hays and Rivenac had gathered a number of their men together and opened fire on the desperadoes, and a pitched battle took place, in which Judson Bell and Lee Watson were mortally wounded and the remainder of the gang were driven away. The next day the railroaders, with officers Ingraham and Cavin, raided Yellow Creek and captured the desperate outlaw "Andy" Watson, who has terrorized Bell County for years. He was taken to Pineville jail. There are several indictments for murder against him. The railroad men have thoroughly armed themselves and say if the Kentucky authorities will back them up they will rid the Yellow Creek region of outlaws.

DEATH OF THE RICHEST BACHELOR

In the United States, at Philadelphia, To-Day; Story of His Life.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—Isaah V. Williamson, the venerable millionaire philanthropist, died at 4 o'clock this morning. Mr. Williamson was perhaps the richest bachelor in the United States. He was born at Penn Manor, Bucks County, Pa., 87 years ago. He was the son of a poor farmer. After working in a country store for some time he came to Philadelphia to seek his fortune and engaged in the dry goods business. He developed great business ability and retired with an immense fortune. Afterwards he became a prominent figure in financial circles. At the time of his death he was regarded the richest man in Philadelphia. Mr. Williamson never married, because, as he said, he was too busy for love affairs. He occupied nearly all his time in making money. He was very fond of dancing, however, and was always on the floor at the summer balls and hops at Saratoga for many years.

RUSSIA'S INFLUENCE IN SERVIA.

Opinions of Two Newpapers—Roumania's Turn to Come Soon.

By Cable to The Freeman.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 7.—The Journal De St. Petersburg says: "Russia's interest in the Servians is strong enough to cause it to wish for them a better future under their young ruler and his trusty Councillors."

The Novoe Vrmya says: "The abdication of Milan is a natural sequence of his estrangement with Russia, which rendered his rule impossible. King Milan's turn arrived after that of Alexander, late Prince of Bulgaria. Roumania's turn may come soon."

Germany and Samoa.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, March 7.—The Boersen Zeitung says the United States has proposed to refer that portion of the Samoan question concerning Germany and the United States alone to arbitration. Germany is not averse to this, but adheres to the opinion that the conference to be continued in Berlin should settle the questions involving Germany, Great Britain and the United States.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, March 7.—The dealings in the stock market this morning were more circumscribed than usual, a few shares, such as Union Pacific, St. Paul, Reading and New England furnishing a large proportion of the business, although there was a fairly active business throughout.

ZANZIBAR, March 7.—An Arab dhow arrived here yesterday and reported that it was boarded by an officer of a German gun-boat, who granted it a pass. Afterwards it was fired upon by other German gun-boats and its Captain was killed. This news created great excitement among the people of Zanzibar and crowds surrounded the Sultan's palace clamoring for revenge. The Sultan referred them to the German Consul.

TO CONTROL THE FLOUR OUT-PUT.

Combination Being Formed at a Secret Meeting of Western Millers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, March 7.—For the last three days the millers of the winter wheat states have been holding a secret meeting here, for the purpose of forming a combine to control the flour out-put. Millers representing Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Arkansas, Texas, Illinois, Tennessee, Minnesota and Wisconsin were here and were joined yesterday by the South-Eastern States. They deny that they have formed any trust, and while this is true in the light that profits will not be divided, it is equally certain that a combine has been formed to control the flour market. A rule regarding commissions in flour was adopted. The commissions have been excessive, and the rule provides that not more than five or 10 cents shall be charged.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE Albany Express speaks of the absconding Snaith as an "assisted" emigrant, and intimates that there are bigger reputations than his own at stake which his absence is expected to protect.

THE sales of tickets to the inauguration ball and promenade concert will amount to $70,000 when the money is all in. This pays the entire expense of the inaugeration and leaves a surplus of $20,000.

MR. CLEVELAND was cheered yesterday all the way from Washington to New York. He had never before seen the people so enthusiastic. His trip to Washington four years ago was a very tame affair comparatively.

SIR JULIAN PAUNCEFORTE is to start for the United States the latter part of March, to assume the office of British Minister. He will return to London for the summer, and bring his family to Washington in the fall.

OFFICIAL figures show the debt of Canada to be $236,000,000. It has increased 120 per cent in fourteen years, but the Minister of finance thinks the Dominion has valuable internal improvements to show for the increase.

EX SPEAKER CARLISLE'S gavel is missing. It was made of an elephant's tooth and was highly valued by the Kentucky statesman, who intended to carry it home with him. He is inconsolable over the loss, as there is no hope for him of ever receiving another.

ASSISTANT Secretaries Maynard and Thompson and Solicitor General Jenks have tendered their resignations, to take effect as soon as their services can be dispensed with. These gentlemen rightly interpret the will of the people as expressed at the late election.

THERE are fifteen gentlemen in Washington who want the office of Public Printer. There are 15,000 throughout the country who believe themselves as well qualified for the position as the man who is going to be bounced.

JUDAS ISCARIOT was arrested in New York yesterday, locked in the Tombs, and afterwards fined $5 for peddling gingerbread under the shadow of the Franklin statue. The occupation was honest, and the countenance of Franklin, who met his future wife while munching bread upon the streets, smiled benignantly upon him, but his name and the bag that he carried provoked the wrath of the court.

THE Mayor of Brooklyn is a member, ex officio, of the Kings County Board of Supervisors. The fact suggests a way to escape the impending deadlock in the Ulster county board. The City of Kingston has not an adequate representation in the Board in proportion to population and wealth, and our Mayors have all been men who would make good Supervisors.

R. C. JACKSON, ex-Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, second division, is being urged for re-appointment. The service has fallen into a shocking condition of inefficiency since his removal for a partisan purpose, and his restoration is asked for by Republicans and Democrats alike. Mr. Jackson was the founder of the system, and is thoroughly versed in all its details.

ROCHESTER'S three great breweries, the "Bartholomay," "Genesee" and "Rochester," were purchased yesterday by the English syndicate which is engaged in buying up all the profitable breweries in the state. The Bartholomay brought $2,500,000, the others $500,000 each. The buyers look for a profitable trade under the anti-license regime of David B. Hill.

THERE is a big rush for the new gold fields of Lower California. Workmen are leaving a new railroad on which they were employed near San Diego in a body, and the work has stopped. The gold area covers 100 miles square. The gold dust brought to San Diego and Ensenada Tuesday is valued at $13,000. Here is a chance for the new administration to start a territorial expansion policy. The United States will soon be turning greedy eyes upon this rich strip of Mexican territory.

THE Democratic Utica Observer states that the Democratic Mayor-elect of that city, Samuel J. Barrows, did not vote at the election. He rode by the polls in the afternoon and was hailed with a request to come and vote, but rode on, saying he would return. He was seen no more. He was to have been challenged as a resident of Dakota, where he is prosecuting his divorce suit. The Observer should see that he does not take the office, which is only for citizens of New York.

THE Senate met yesterday and adjourned, but in the afternoon a caucus of Republican members was held and a committee appointed to arrange the Republican share of the committees. There are only six new members in the present Senate, Wolcott of Colorado, McMillan of Michigan, Higgins of Delaware, Washburn of Minnesota, Marston of New Hampshire, and Barbour of Virginia. Marston is filling a vacancy for three months. Two years ago not less than fourteen changes took place.

KING MILAN of Servia has turned over his throne, crown and scepter to his thirteen-year-old son, who is to reign as Alexander I. It is to be hoped that the new monarch will lead a more exemplary career than his father, whose scandalous treatment of his wife, Natalie, is known the world over. Alexander has been with his mother in exile, and refused to leave her till called to the throne. He recently gave as a toast at an army banquet the name of his mother. Natalie will go home to Belgrade when the new government becomes established.

THE Detroit Free Press states that Postmaster General Dickinson is not personally disappointed over the result of the election, as he intended to leave Washington and return to his law practice on the 5th of March anyway. He had accepted office at a great sacrifice. The country knows very well that Dickinson entered into a contract to bring Mr. Cleveland the electoral vote of Michigan. Of course he failed to deliver the goods. But he is an able lawyer, and his practice is said to be worth $50,000 a year. Hence he wanted to go home, and was very glad to see Mr. Wanamaker.

GENERAL TELEGRAPH NEWS

SECRETARIES BESIEGED BY CALLERS.

Impromptu Receptions; Walker Blaine Occupies a Seat in State Department.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Secretaries Blaine, Proctor and Tracy came to their respective offices early this morning, but if they had any idea of attending to official business they must have abandoned it when they saw the number of people awaiting them. Senators, Representatives and high officials came in twos and threes, some brought friends and many ladies were among the callers. Russell Harrison, with a party of Montana people, made the rounds of the Departments. They called on the Secretaries only to pay their respects, and had no designs upon the officials. General Sherman and Admiral Porter were among the notables who attended the impromptu receptions. No official changes have yet been recorded in the subordinate offices; but Walker Blaine occupied the seat vacated by First Assistant Secretary Rives in the Department of State, and Thomas Sherman, who formerly served as Secretary Blaine's Private Secretary, was endeavoring to protect the Secretary from inroads of the public. Both of them have voluntarily taken hold to help smooth the way for the new administration, but in neither case has an appointment been made.

In the War Department William C. Endicott, Jr., continues to fill the post of Private Secretary. His father, the late Secretary of War, called upon his successor this morning, presumably to supply him with information respecting current business. Senators Paddock and Hawley, and Representative Dorsey, of Nebraska, were among Secretary Proctor's callers, and they subsequently called upon Secretaries Blaine and Tracy.

No appointment has not yet been made to fill the Private Secretaryship in the Navy Department, vacated by Mr. Fletcher, and the assistant is discharging the routine duties of the office. Ex-Senator Chandler called about mid-day upon Secretary Tracy, and had quite a long chat with him.

In all of the Executive Departments located in the State, War and Navy building the changes likely to result from the change in politics of the administration are few in number, because a long line of precedents favoring the continuation of the bureau chiefs in the State Department, while in the others the superior posts are mostly filled by detailed Army and Navy officers.

Assistant Secretary Thompson was Acting Secretary of the Treasury, to-day, at the request of Secretary Windom, who announced his intention of devoting the day to the reception of visitors. A large number of Senators and ex-members of Congress availed themselves of the opportunity afforded and called to pay their respects; and throughout the day the room of the Secretary was filled with visitors. No distinction was made in favor of politicians and the general public was largely represented.

The callers at the White House to-day outnumbered those of yesterday. It was about 9:30 o'clock when the President made his appearance in the official part of the house, and received the Inter-State Commerce Commissioners with the State Railroad Commissioners now in the City. Following them were about 1,000 persons who wished to shake the President's hand. When this task was over the President climbed the stairs only to find himself confronted with Senators, Representatives and office-seekers in scores. The greater number of them really called to pay their respects, but another and not inconsiderable number could not let pass the opportunity to whisper a word in favor of their particular candidates for various offices.

Soon after noon the Michigan delegation called by appointment. As they have not yet agreed upon the man and place they want, they did nothing more than exchange courtesies with the head of the new administration. After that, and until luncheon, the President's time was taken up in hand-shaking. Among those received were the Colored Editors and a Texas delegation. Ex-Postmaster General Kay, ex-Minister Sheneck and Senator Jones, of Arkansas, were among the morning callers. Mr. Harrison stated to-day he would have been very much pleased to have appointed in his Cabinet some one from California, and at an early date he suggested to the people of the Pacific Slope to unite upon two or three names from which he might select. They neglected to do this till quite late and finally when they did present some names, they stated specifically that no other positions in the Cabinet would be acceptable to them except the Secretary of the Interior or Attorney General. As matters in respect to these to offices had been settled or narrowed down to a couple of names from other states, it was impossible for him to accommodate them. This is the reason why the Pacific Slope proper did not have any representative in the Cabinet, as President Harrison himself had expected and hoped for a long time.

First Comptroller Durham, Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller and Fourth Auditor Shelley have tendered their resignations to Secretary Windom, to take effect at his convenience. Messrs. Mason, of West-Virginia, Montgomery, of Ohio, and Evans, of Kentucky, are the leading candidates for the position of Internal Revenue Commissioner.

Treasurer Hyatt will tender his resignation to the President at the first opportunity. Charles E. Coon, formerly Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, is reported to be an applicant for the position of Comptroller of the Currency. It is said, however, that Secretary Windom has requested him to resume his former position.

Mr. Buchard, formerly Director of the Mint, was a caller on the Secretery this morning and is said to be an applicant for this office, but Director Kimball has not signified his intention to resign until his term has expired. It is expected most of the Democratic bureau officers will send in their resignations and give the Secretary an opportunity of naming their successors.

Cleveland at His Law Office.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, March 7.—Ex-President Cleveland drove down in a carriage, this morning, from the Victoria Hotel to his law office in William-street. He was accompanied by Messrs. Stetson and MacVeagh.

IN CEILING INVESTIGATION, TO-DAY.

Expert who Examined Snaith's Account at Bank on the Stand.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, March 7.—The examination of James Yalden, the expert accountant, in relation to Snaith's accounts with the National Commercial Bank, of Albany, was the first work of the Special Ceiling Investigating Committee, to-day. Yalden testified that he had visited the Commercial Bank and had been afforded facilties to examine Snaith's accounts. He had examined the accounts made between June, 1888, and March 4, 1889. On June 11, the credit balance was $528.73. On March 4, 1889, it was $39.92. The account divided itself into three classes—cash, discounts and State deposits. Between the dates named there was deposited in checks $150,255. Of this $32,872 were discounts, leaving the net cash deposited $117,283.

Matthew Hale, of counsel for Snaith, here desired to have entered on the record a formal protest against what he termed the unfairness of this proceeding. All he asked for his client was the ordinary rights of an American citizen.

Mr. Aspinwall, of the Committee, objected to any statement by Mr. Hale.

Chairman Fish directed counsel to desist, and ordered the stenographer not to take down any remarks of his.

Mr. Hale—"Then you refuse to allow my protest to be entered on the record?"

Mr. Fish—"The Committee has already decided that it will not allow any witness to appear by counsel. Counsel must stop."

Mr. Seward said: "If Snaith was here we would accord him the ordinary right of an American citizen by examining him."

OUTLAWS ATTACK RAILROAD MEN,

But are Worsted Finally and Two of Them Mortally Wounded.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, March 7.—Advices from East-Tennessee say a party of mountain desperadoes, headed by the notorious Clabe Watson, Lee Watson, William Turner and Judson Bell, attacked the camps of Hoy and Rivence railroad contractors, near Cumberland Gap, a few days ago. The ruffians were drunk and armed with Winchester rifles and large Colt's revolvers. They first overran the commissary department and ate or destroyed all the provisions. They then went to the shanties and cabins occupied by the negro laborers and beat several of them nearly to death. By this time Hays and Rivenac had gathered a number of their men together and opened fire on the desperadoes, and a pitched battle took place, in which Judson Bell and Lee Watson were mortally wounded and the remainder of the gang were driven away. The next day the railroaders, with officers Ingraham and Cavin, raided Yellow Creek and captured the desperate outlaw "Andy" Watson, who has terrorized Bell County for years. He was taken to Pineville jail. There are several indictments for murder against him. The railroad men have thoroughly armed themselves and say if the Kentucky authorities will back them up they will rid the Yellow Creek region of outlaws.

In the United States, at Philadelphia, To-Day; Story of His Life.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—Isaah V. Williamson, the venerable millionaire philanthropist, died at 4 o'clock this morning. Mr. Williamson was perhaps the richest bachelor in the United States. He was born at Penn Manor, Bucks County, Pa., 87 years ago. He was the son of a poor farmer. After working in a country store for some time he came to Philadelphia to seek his fortune and engaged in the dry goods business. He developed great business ability and retired with an immense fortune. Afterwards he became a prominent figure in financial circles. At the time of his death he was regarded the richest man in Philadelphia. Mr. Williamson never married, because, as he said, he was too busy for love affairs. He occupied nearly all his time in making money. He was very fond of dancing, however, and was always on the floor at the summer balls and hops at Saratoga for many years.

NEW-YORK, March 7.—J. P. MacGarrahan, a well known journalist of this City, dropped dead this morning of heart disease.

RUSSIA'S INFLUENCE IN SERVIA.

Opinions of Two Newpapers—Roumania's Turn to Come Soon.

By Cable to The Freeman.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 7.—The Journal De St. Petersburg says: "Russia's interest in the Servians is strong enough to cause it to wish for them a better future under their young ruler and his trusty Councillors."

The Novoe Vrmya says: "The abdication of Milan is a natural sequence of his estrangement with Russia, which rendered his rule impossible. King Milan's turn arrived after that of Alexander, late Prince of Bulgaria. Roumania's turn may come soon."

Germany and Samoa.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, March 7.—The Boersen Zeitung says the United States has proposed to refer that portion of the Samoan question concerning Germany and the United States alone to arbitration. Germany is not averse to this, but adheres to the opinion that the conference to be continued in Berlin should settle the questions involving Germany, Great Britain and the United States.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Leading Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, March 7.—The dealings in the stock market this morning were more circumscribed than usual, a few shares, such as Union Pacific, St. Paul, Reading and New England furnishing a large proportion of the business, although there was a fairly active business throughout.

ARAB DHOW FIRED UPON BY GERMANS.

The Captain was Killed; Great Excitement Among People of Zanzibar.

By Cable to The Freeman.

ZANZIBAR, March 7.—An Arab dhow arrived here yesterday and reported that it was boarded by an officer of a German gun-boat, who granted it a pass. Afterwards it was fired upon by other German gun-boats and its Captain was killed. This news created great excitement among the people of Zanzibar and crowds surrounded the Sultan's palace clamoring for revenge. The Sultan referred them to the German Consul.

TO CONTROL THE FLOUR OUT-PUT.

Combination Being Formed at a Secret Meeting of Western Millers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, March 7.—For the last three days the millers of the winter wheat states have been holding a secret meeting here, for the purpose of forming a combine to control the flour out-put. Millers representing Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Arkansas, Texas, Illinois, Tennessee, Minnesota and Wisconsin were here and were joined yesterday by the South-Eastern States. They deny that they have formed any trust, and while this is true in the light that profits will not be divided, it is equally certain that a combine has been formed to control the flour market. A rule regarding commissions in flour was adopted. The commissions have been excessive, and the rule provides that not more than five or 10 cents shall be charged.

Twelve years ago she had a severe illness, and from the lack of proper treatment a scrofulous abcess formed, and although for a number of years it was not particularly troublesome, three years ago it began to discharge causing her a great deal of annoyance and apprehension. This continued for two years when she began the use of Brown's Sarsaparilla. One bottle stopped the discharge and four completed a cure and this is why she

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Indications for Friday: Fair, slightly cooler, north-westerly winds.

WELL, REALLY!

The great service of the administration has been its demonstration of the fact that while the Democratic party counts nearly as many adherents as the Republican, it is not a revolutionary party, and that the Union and government are perfectly safe under Democratic ascendency.—Harper's Weekly.

So the test of Democratic patriotism and usefulness has come to this, that it did not take advantage of its power to start a revolution! That is a lofty conception of duty to country surely! We believe, however, that Harper's Weekly expected something more than this when it went over to the Democratic party four years ago. It expected a thorough purification of the public service, not indeed by a Democratic clean sweep, but by the retention of efficient Republicans in office. It expected that the opening of the books would reveal a scandalous amount of stealing under past administrations. It expected a stern application of old fashioned economy and Jeffersonian simplicity. In all of these things it has been disappointed. The useful Republican officials were turned out, and wherever proved thieves were put in their places they were allowed to stay. The examination of the books revealed a deficiency of two cents which were afterwards swept up from the treasury floor where they had been dropped by one of the examiners. There has been no exceptional honesty in Democratic administration; on the contrary Ex-Secretary Fairchild has stated that the frauds in the New York custom house have amounted to millions. Jeffersonian simplicity has been at a discount, while waste and extravagance have run riot, and there has been a steady effort to ape the splendor of European courts. And at the elections the old Democratic tactics of fraud, intimidation and murder have been brought into full play, without provoking a word of remonstrance from Washington.

And now we are told that the administration has rendered great service to the country in not heading an actual revolution by its party. In the general summing up, this is the best that can be said for it. It is not a high compliment. We do not praise the boy as exceptionally good and peaceful who, on his return to school, refrains from thrashing the teacher, after having once been soundly thrashed himself in making the attempt. The boys who have never engaged in such an undertaking are entitled to a better character. As for a revolution, that would have been impossible without engaging again in armed rebellion. The Republican Senate stood squarely and firmly between the country and any scheme of revolutionizing the government that the executive might have advised or the lower house undertaken. And however much the old rebels in Congress might have yearned for another tilt at arms, they had a wholesome and restraining recollection of past occurrences. Their party had indeed numbered at the polls as large a force as the Republicans, but they knew that rebellion would let loose into entire freedom to bear arms a million men whose votes they had suppressed. There would then be another counting of the "adherents" of the two parties, and the Republican party would again have with it the big majority that carried the flag to Appomattox.

But while the Democratic party is able to "point with pride" to the fact that it did not again prove itself a revolutionary party, it went as far as it could in its endorsement of a previous revolution and rebellion. The Confederate soldiers in the Cabinet were to the Union soldiers there as two to one. Union soldiers by the hundred were turned out of places to make room for Confederates. The dependent pension bill for the benefit of Union veterans was vetoed, while the Mexican pension bill, a companion measure whose benefits inured almost wholly to Confederates, was approved. The vetoes of private pension bills for Union veterans and their dependents were almost numberless, while Mr. Cleveland's last official act was the veto of the direct tax bill, which would have restored to all the states that paid it the direct tax levied for the support of the war in 1861. And when he went out of office he carried away twenty-six pension bills, which were thus squelched by the pocket veto.

The only compliment which Harper's Weekly can find to bestow upon the departed administration is for refraining from the one act of revolution through armed rebellion that the Democratic party dared not undertake. Is the Weekly a fair eulogist? Is what it has said the best that could be said? The duty of answering devolves appropriately upon the mouthpieces of that party. We do not recall any real service rendered to the country by the party during its four years of political ascendency, except the practical extinguishment of a once very troublesome treasury surplus by the methods outlined by Secretary Fairchild in his references to the New York custom house.

What is the country's highest expectation of the Republican party on its return to power? That it will restrain itself from engaging in revolution or revolutionary schemes? We think not. The Democratic party is the only party in existence that feels itself complimented when thanked for not having done this thing.

KEENAN RAISING A FUND.

Boss Keenan of the New York Boodlers, assisted by other dwellers in the United States penal colony, has undertaken to buy up the Canadian Parliament. Last week Professor Weldon introduced a bill providing for the surrender to the United States of all criminals who have escaped from this country and are domiciled in the Dominion. Before introducing the bill Weldon made a quiet canvass among the members, and thinks he has secured enough unequivocal promises to assure its passage.

The movement threw the whole penal colony into alarm. A conference was at once arranged in Montreal between Keenan and John C. Eno, who stole $2,000,000 from the Second National Bank of New York, and the result is a concerted attempt to defeat the bill by bribery. Keenan at once communicated with his resident fellow boodlers, Dempsey, DeLacey and Sayles. The conferees sent him last Wednesday on a mission to Toronto, Hamilton and Windsor, to confer with other thieves, and he returned on Tuesday. He found in Toronto Thomas Axworthy, who stole $450,000 from the city of Cleveland, Ohio, H. D. Scholl, who stole $14,000 from the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, and H. G. Stickney, who stole $17,000 from C. L. Davenport of Boston. In Windsor he found John E. Sullivan, the Indianapolis County Clerk who defaulted for over $100,000, and Henry Dilckman who stole $60,000 from patrons in St. Louis. He found Joseph A. Moore, another Indianapolis thief who stole $500,000 from the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, residing in Kingston, the notorious Mother Mandlebaum of New York in Hamilton, and Amandus Ebert, a Cincinnati swindler to the tune of $15,000, in Montreal. Keenan and his conferees had agreed that $100,000 must be raised and possibly more, and on returning to Montreal he was able to report subscriptions to the amount of $23,000. It was believed possible to raise also $20,000 in Montreal, as Eno himself was believed to be reliable for $10,000 or $15,000, while an attempt was to be made to raise $20,000 from Canadian defaulters in the United States, since it was considered certain that the passage of the Weldon bill would be followed with reciprocal action by Congress.

Keenan, Eno and a lawyer in their employ are at Ottawa now, looking after the interests of the colony in Parliament. The counsel is "feeling" the members, and those who are found to be "impressionable" are given a quiet supper at Eno's rooms. These when they leave are supposed to find a "wad" in their pockets, placed there by some mysterious agency. The bill is expected to come up for second reading this week, and then attempts will be made to load it with absurd amendments and to delay action by dilatory motions. So uncertain are the boodlers, however, of preventing its passage, that they have already written to Billy Maloney at Amsterdam inquiring as to the desirability of that place for a health resort. Similar inquiries have been sent to Belgium, France, Spain, Italy and the Argentine Republic.

In the meantime Keenan finds that the most pressing need of the colony is an organ. His thoughts turn instinctively to one or two Democratic newspapers on this side of the line which he has braced up, and he wonders whether they will not come over and help him. Here is a fine opening for a grateful friend.

ABSENT WITNESSES.

It has been ascertained in Albany that Contractor Snaith of Assembly ceiling fame has been in Philadelphia and is on his way to Florida. This fact was brought to light before the Assembly investigating committee yesterday by James F. Maguire, Snaith's employe. He testified that he went to Philadelphia last Saturday and met Snaith. After a talk with him he returned to Albany and drew $2,500 from the bank, which he carried to his employer along with his books. Snaith's coachman also testified that Snaith and Architect Rowe had a consultation last Wednesday evening. Rowe had his bag already packed, and soon afterwards both gentlemen left town, Snaith taking enough baggage to last him several months. Rowe is understood to have started for Memphis, and it is possible that he has continued his journey to New Orleans. Mrs. Snaith was seen in Philadelphia with her husband, and their elaborate arrangements for travel indicate an intention to remain away till after the adjournment of the Legislature. A lawyer named Frothingham, in the employ of Snaith, said last night that the latter would reappear with his books whenever the Committee would permit him to be represented by counsel.

The disappearance of these witnesses is a confession of guilt. They showed no fear in the investigation by the Appropriations Committee; indeed, Mr. Snaith defiantly produced his books against the advice of his counsel, Matthew Hale. But the present committee has excited different emotions.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The solemn oath of office was probably never before administered to a President of the United States by a Chief Justice with mustachios like the wings of a spread eagle.—New York Sun.

When Mr. Cleveland's administration entered upon its existence, the postal system of the country was in a high state of efficiency. When it was retired by the people, the postal system had become almost hopelessly demoralized. It is hoped that the first broom of the new administration will be placed in the vigorous hands of Postmaster-General Wanamaker.—Buffalo News.

Much time and thought were expended in its construction, but at last President Harrison has a Cabinet which will stand firm as a rock.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

The next Congress should promptly amend its rules so as to prevent the obstruction of business by a single member to gratify his own spite or compel attention to some particular scheme. It can be done with an entirely adequate protection to the rights of minorities.—Providence Journal, Dem.

Cleveland did not run away with the continent during his four years, and the Democratic party did not dissolve the Union or break down protection; but there is every reason for feeling easier when the term of power by the party dominated by the Confederates is at an end.—Binghamton Republican.

There is a bill before the Legislature of Arkansas to prohibit detectives of other states from crossing the boundary lines of the commonwealth in search of law-breakers. This of course means that Arkansas does not want anyone to run down the wretch who assassinated the Republican nominee for Congress, John M. Clayton.—Troy Times.

In President Harrison's Cabinet may be found men who have made successful efforts in such varied fields of activity as farming, commerce and trade, manufacturing, law, politics, diplomacy, statesmanship and war. They represent pretty nearly every department of human industry in some form or other.—New York Graphic.

It is noticeable that some newspapers which contended before election that the repeal of the internal duties on whisky would make whisky free now contend that the repeal of the tobacco taxes will not make tobacco free. Still, they are violently opposed to the repeal in either case, because (though they do not say so) they are for Free Trade and want the revenue reduced by cutting off the customs duties; so anything does for an "argument" with them.—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at VanDeusen Brothers, Rondout, and F. J. R. Clark's, Kingston, Drug Stores.

SENSIBLE PEOPLE

will have nothing to do with "cure-alls"—medicines that are advertised to cure everything from a chilblain to a broken neck. Read the list of diseases that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure! Affections of the throat and lungs, incipient consumption, disordered liver, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, ulcers, tumors and swellings caused by scrofula and bad blood; fever and ague and dropsy. This seems like a cure-all, but it is not. This great "Discovery" will really cure all these complaints simply because it purifies the blood upon which they depend and builds up the weak places of the body. By druggists.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not. Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

"MY KINGDOM FOR A HORSE,"

But if he suffers from scratches, cracks, cuts, galls or wounds of any kinds, Veterinary Hop Ointment is warranted to cure. Never fails. $1.00 a box. At all druggists.

HE WAS UP IN MYTHOLOGY.

"Father," said little Johnny Smith, "I saw something in the paper about the Pillars of Hercules. What were they?" "The Pillars of Hercules," replied Mr. Smith, "were that gentleman's doctors, of course." Ten years ago Dr. Tutt's Little Liver Pills had a reputation only in the United States. Now they are used all over the globe, wherever torpid liver, dyspepsia, costiveness, sick headache and malaria prevail.

OUR LITTLE SON.

Four years old, afflicted with a painful skin disease. Six doctors tried to cure him; all Failed. Got worse and worse. Completely cured by one set of Cuticura Remedies, costing $1.75.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th instant. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the Cuticura, and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura, and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

SCROFULOUS HUMORS.

Last spring I was very sick, being covered with some kind of scrofula. The doctors could not help me. I was advised to try Cuticura Resolvent. I did so, and in a day I grew better and better, until I am as well as ever. I thank you for it very much, and would like to have it told to the public.

Choking Catarrh.

Have you awaked from a disturbed sleep with all the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, clouding the memory and filling the head with pains and strange noises! How difficult it is to rid the nasal passages, throat and lungs of this poisonous mucus all can testify who are afflicted with catarrh. How difficult to protect the system against its further progress towards the lungs, liver and kidneys, all physicians will admit. It is a terrible disease, and cries out for relief and cure.

The remarkable curative powers, when all other remedies utterly fail, of Sanford's Radical Cure, are attested by thousands who gratefully recommend it to fellow-sufferers. No statement is made regarding it that cannot be substantiated by the most respectable and reliable references.

Each packet contains one bottle of Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and an Improved Inhaler, with treatise and directions, and is sold by all druggists for $1.00.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Indications for Friday: Fair, slightly cooler, north-westerly winds.

WELL, REALLY!

The great service of the administration has been its demonstration of the fact that while the Democratic party counts nearly as many adherents as the Republican, it is not a revolutionary party, and that the Union and government are perfectly safe under Democratic ascendency.—Harper's Weekly.

So the test of Democratic patriotism and usefulness has come to this, that it did not take advantage of its power to start a revolution! That is a lofty conception of duty to country surely! We believe, however, that Harper's Weekly expected something more than this when it went over to the Democratic party four years ago. It expected a thorough purification of the public service, not indeed by a Democratic clean sweep, but by the retention of efficient Republicans in office. It expected that the opening of the books would reveal a scandalous amount of stealing under past administrations. It expected a stern application of old fashioned economy and Jeffersonian simplicity. In all of these things it has been disappointed. The useful Republican officials were turned out, and wherever proved thieves were put in their places they were allowed to stay. The examination of the books revealed a deficiency of two cents which were afterwards swept up from the treasury floor where they had been dropped by one of the examiners. There has been no exceptional honesty in Democratic administration; on the contrary Ex-Secretary Fairchild has stated that the frauds in the New York custom house have amounted to millions. Jeffersonian simplicity has been at a discount, while waste and extravagance have run riot, and there has been a steady effort to ape the splendor of European courts. And at the elections the old Democratic tactics of fraud, intimidation and murder have been brought into full play, without provoking a word of remonstrance from Washington.

And now we are told that the administration has rendered great service to the country in not heading an actual revolution by its party. In the general summing up, this is the best that can be said for it. It is not a high compliment. We do not praise the boy as exceptionally good and peaceful who, on his return to school, refrains from thrashing the teacher, after having once been soundly thrashed himself in making the attempt. The boys who have never engaged in such an undertaking are entitled to a better character. As for a revolution, that would have been impossible without engaging again in armed rebellion. The Republican Senate stood squarely and firmly between the country and any scheme of revolutionizing the government that the executive might have advised or the lower house undertaken. And however much the old rebels in Congress might have yearned for another tilt at arms, they had a wholesome and restraining recollection of past occurrences. Their party had indeed numbered at the polls as large a force as the Republicans, but they knew that rebellion would let loose into entire freedom to bear arms a million men whose votes they had suppressed. There would then be another counting of the "adherents" of the two parties, and the Republican party would again have with it the big majority that carried the flag to Appomattox.

But while the Democratic party is able to "point with pride" to the fact that it did not again prove itself a revolutionary party, it went as far as it could in its endorsement of a previous revolution and rebellion. The Confederate soldiers in the Cabinet were to the Union soldiers there as two to one. Union soldiers by the hundred were turned out of places to make room for Confederates. The dependent pension bill for the benefit of Union veterans was vetoed, while the Mexican pension bill, a companion measure whose benefits inured almost wholly to Confederates, was approved. The vetoes of private pension bills for Union veterans and their dependents were almost numberless, while Mr. Cleveland's last official act was the veto of the direct tax bill, which would have restored to all the states that paid it the direct tax levied for the support of the war in 1861. And when he went out of office he carried away twenty-six pension bills, which were thus squelched by the pocket veto.

The only compliment which Harper's Weekly can find to bestow upon the departed administration is for refraining from the one act of revolution through armed rebellion that the Democratic party dared not undertake. Is the Weekly a fair eulogist? Is what it has said the best that could be said? The duty of answering devolves appropriately upon the mouthpieces of that party. We do not recall any real service rendered to the country by the party during its four years of political ascendency, except the practical extinguishment of a once very troublesome treasury surplus by the methods outlined by Secretary Fairchild in his references to the New York custom house.

What is the country's highest expectation of the Republican party on its return to power? That it will restrain itself from engaging in revolution or revolutionary schemes? We think not. The Democratic party is the only party in existence that feels itself complimented when thanked for not having done this thing.

KEENAN RAISING A FUND.

Boss Keenan of the New York Boodlers, assisted by other dwellers in the United States penal colony, has undertaken to buy up the Canadian Parliament. Last week Professor Weldon introduced a bill providing for the surrender to the United States of all criminals who have escaped from this country and are domiciled in the Dominion. Before introducing the bill Weldon made a quiet canvass among the members, and thinks he has secured enough unequivocal promises to assure its passage.

The movement threw the whole penal colony into alarm. A conference was at once arranged in Montreal between Keenan and John C. Eno, who stole $2,000,000 from the Second National Bank of New York, and the result is a concerted attempt to defeat the bill by bribery. Keenan at once communicated with his resident fellow boodlers, Dempsey, DeLacey and Sayles. The conferees sent him last Wednesday on a mission to Toronto, Hamilton and Windsor, to confer with other thieves, and he returned on Tuesday. He found in Toronto Thomas Axworthy, who stole $450,000 from the city of Cleveland, Ohio, H. D. Scholl, who stole $14,000 from the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, and H. G. Stickney, who stole $17,000 from C. L. Davenport of Boston. In Windsor he found John E. Sullivan, the Indianapolis County Clerk who defaulted for over $100,000, and Henry Dilckman who stole $60,000 from patrons in St. Louis. He found Joseph A. Moore, another Indianapolis thief who stole $500,000 from the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, residing in Kingston, the notorious Mother Mandlebaum of New York in Hamilton, and Amandus Ebert, a Cincinnati swindler to the tune of $15,000, in Montreal. Keenan and his conferees had agreed that $100,000 must be raised and possibly more, and on returning to Montreal he was able to report subscriptions to the amount of $23,000. It was believed possible to raise also $20,000 in Montreal, as Eno himself was believed to be reliable for $10,000 or $15,000, while an attempt was to be made to raise $20,000 from Canadian defaulters in the United States, since it was considered certain that the passage of the Weldon bill would be followed with reciprocal action by Congress.

Keenan, Eno and a lawyer in their employ are at Ottawa now, looking after the interests of the colony in Parliament. The counsel is "feeling" the members, and those who are found to be "impressionable" are given a quiet supper at Eno's rooms. These when they leave are supposed to find a "wad" in their pockets, placed there by some mysterious agency. The bill is expected to come up for second reading this week, and then attempts will be made to load it with absurd amendments and to delay action by dilatory motions. So uncertain are the boodlers, however, of preventing its passage, that they have already written to Billy Maloney at Amsterdam inquiring as to the desirability of that place for a health resort. Similar inquiries have been sent to Belgium, France, Spain, Italy and the Argentine Republic.

In the meantime Keenan finds that the most pressing need of the colony is an organ. His thoughts turn instinctively to one or two Democratic newspapers on this side of the line which he has braced up, and he wonders whether they will not come over and help him. Here is a fine opening for a grateful friend.

ABSENT WITNESSES.

It has been ascertained in Albany that Contractor Snaith of Assembly ceiling fame has been in Philadelphia and is on his way to Florida. This fact was brought to light before the Assembly investigating committee yesterday by James F. Maguire, Snaith's employe. He testified that he went to Philadelphia last Saturday and met Snaith. After a talk with him he returned to Albany and drew $2,500 from the bank, which he carried to his employer along with his books. Snaith's coachman also testified that Snaith and Architect Rowe had a consultation last Wednesday evening. Rowe had his bag already packed, and soon afterwards both gentlemen left town, Snaith taking enough baggage to last him several months. Rowe is understood to have started for Memphis, and it is possible that he has continued his journey to New Orleans. Mrs. Snaith was seen in Philadelphia with her husband, and their elaborate arrangements for travel indicate an intention to remain away till after the adjournment of the Legislature. A lawyer named Frothingham, in the employ of Snaith, said last night that the latter would reappear with his books whenever the Committee would permit him to be represented by counsel.

The disappearance of these witnesses is a confession of guilt. They showed no fear in the investigation by the Appropriations Committee; indeed, Mr. Snaith defiantly produced his books against the advice of his counsel, Matthew Hale. But the present committee has excited different emotions.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The solemn oath of office was probably never before administered to a President of the United States by a Chief Justice with mustachios like the wings of a spread eagle.—New York Sun.

When Mr. Cleveland's administration entered upon its existence, the postal system of the country was in a high state of efficiency When it was retired by the people, the postal system had become almost hopelessly demoralized. It is hoped that the first broom of the new administration will be placed in the vigorous hands of Postmaster-General Wanamaker.—Buffalo News.

Much time and thought were expended in its construction, but at last President Harrison has a Cabinet which will stand firm as a rock.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

The next Congress should promptly amend its rules so as to prevent the obstruction of business by a single member to gratify his own spite or compel attention to some particular scheme. It can be done with an entirely adequate protection to the rights of minorities.—Providence Journal, Dem.

Cleveland did not run away with the continent during his four years, and the Democratic party did not dissolve the Union or break down protection; but there is every reason for feeling easier when the term of power by the party dominated by the Confederates is at an end.—Binghamton Republican.

There is a bill before the Legislature of Arkansas to prohibit detectives of other states from crossing the boundary lines of the commonwealth in search of law-breakers. This of course means that Arkansas does not want anyone to run down the wretch who assassinated the Republican nominee for Congress, John M. Clayton.—Troy Times.

In President Harrison's Cabinet may be found men who have made successful efforts in such varied fields of activity as farming, commerce and trade, manufacturing, law, politics, diplomacy, statesmanship and war. They represent pretty nearly every department of human industry in some form or other.—New York Graphic.

It is noticeable that some newspapers which contended before election that the repeal of the internal duties on whisky would make whisky free now contend that the repeal of the tobacco taxes will not make tobacco free. Still, they are violently opposed to the repeal in either case, because (though they do not say so) they are for Free Trade and want the revenue reduced by cutting off the customs duties; so anything does for an "argument" with them.—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at VanDeusen Brothers, Rondout, and F. J. R. Clark's, Kingston, Drug Stores.

SENSIBLE PEOPLE

will have nothing to do with "cure-alls"—medicines that are advertised to cure everything from a chilblain to a broken neck. Read the list of diseases that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure! Affections of the throat and lungs, incipient consumption, disordered liver, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, ulcers, tumors and swellings caused by scrofula and bad blood; fever and ague and dropsy. This seems like a cure-all, but it is not. This great "Discovery" will really cure all these complaints simply because it purifies the blood upon which they depend and builds up the weak places of the body. By druggists.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not. Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

OUR LITTLE SON.

Four years old, afflicted with a painful skin disease. Six doctors tried to cure him; all Failed. Got worse and worse. Completely cured by one set of Cuticura Remedies, costing $1.75.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th instant. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the Cuticura, and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura, and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

Choking Catarrh.

Have you awaked from a disturbed sleep with all the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, clouding the memory and filling the head with pains and strange noises! How difficult it is to rid the nasal passages, throat and lungs of this poisonous mucus all can testify who are afflicted with catarrh. How difficult to protect the system against its further progress towards the lungs, liver and kidneys, all physicians will admit. It is a terrible disease, and cries out for relief and cure.

The remarkable curative powers, when all other remedies utterly fail, of Sanford's Radical Cure, are attested by thousands who gratefully recommend it to fellow-sufferers. No statement is made regarding it that cannot be substantiated by the most respectable and reliable references.

Each packet contains one bottle of Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and an Improved Inhaler, with treatise and directions, and is sold by all druggists for $1.00.

EXPECTORANT

Acknowledged by all who have used it to be the most wonderful cure in the world for Coughs and Colds.

Is warranted to cure any ordinary cough or cold or your money is returned. A pleasant, swift and sure cure for Coughs and Colds.

If taken as soon as you feel that irritation or dryness of the throat, occasioned by a cold, four to six doses will cure.

It won't cure a horrible sore throat in one night, nor in fact will it cure anything in that space of time. It takes at least a day or so to cure a cold, but

IT GETS THERE ALL THE SAME.

It stops your cough almost at once, but should you stop taking it after two or three doses probably your cough would return. One thing you can always be sure of: Long before you have emptied the bottle you will be "all O. K."

As a trial of this truly wonderful medicine costs nothing, and as 95 cases out of every 100 will be cured it is well worth your while to at least make the trial.

TERRIFIED PASSENGERS.

TRAIN FIRED INTO BY MEN WITH SHOT GUNS NEAR CHICAGO.

People Who Were Injured—White Cap Outrage in Kansas—Woman Who Died of Fright and Fatigue—Excitement—Other Telegraph News.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, March 7.—The Cincinnati Express which came in on the Louisville, New-Albany & Chicago Railroad last evening brought a badly-scared lot of passengers. Two hours before reaching Chicago the train was fired upon by an unknown man who took deliberate aim at the rear coach and sent two loads of duck-shot crashing through the windows. Some of the passengers narrowly escaped. The shooting took place at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The train, an unusually large one, was behind time and was running at a high rate of speed, not stopping at small stations. When a mile south of Rose Lawn, a station in Indiana, 56 miles from Chicago, the engineer noticed two men standing near the track. One had a double-barreled shot-gun. Supposing they were hunters, he paid no especial attention to them. The men stood motionless until the last coach was abreast of them, when the man with the gun leveled it and fired both barrels. It made a loud report and the terrified passengers sprang from their seats as the shot crashed through the windows, and sent a shower of broken glass flying over the car. For an instant they were almost paralyzed with fear, but realizing what had happened, some ran to the rear door, and saw the men still standing by the track. An instant later the train sped around a curve. One of the passengers jerked the bell-cord, but there was so much slack that the gong in the locomotive cab did not ring. The train could not be stopped until a passenger ran ahead to the baggage-car, where the Conductor was found, and by that time several miles had been covered and the Conductor would not turn back. An examination of the coach showed that the last four windows on the left side were smashed to atoms. The outside of the car was riddled with shot, and a handful of the missiles was picked up from the car floor. Several of the passengers were slightly cut in the hands and face by broken glass, and T. S. Tanner, of Chicago, found a shot embedded in his scalp. The Railroad Company has sent out officers to hunt down the miscreants.

WHITE CAP OUTRAGE IN KANSAS.

Man's Wife Dies of Fright and Fatigue; Warrant for Arrest Seemed.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WICHITA, Kans., March 7.—Ira Campbell, of this City, moved to a farm near here on Tuesday, and at 10 o'clock at night he was visited by a dozen White Caps, who made their presence known by firing several rounds at the roof of the house. The Captain called Campbell and told him he must leave the house with his family by midnight or they would be killed. Campbell, fearing the worst, put his family in a wagon and reached his former home here yesterday morning. His wife had been ill for some days and the fright and fatigue made her so much worse that she died last evening. Campbell says the party was well disguised, but he thinks he knows one member and a warrant has been sworn out for his arrest. There is much excitement here over the affair and threats of lynching are made.

Tired of Eluding Detectives.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

EARLVILLE, Ills., March 7.—Last night Daniel McLochlan, aged 22, killed Cora Carnohan, aged 13, and then committed suicide. The pair eloped Sunday night from Paw Paw, Ills., and had a weary time of it eluding detectives.

Milton Matters.

Miss Mabel Cubbard is visiting in New-York and Newark, N. J.

C. S. Roe, who, in 1830, resided in Milton, predicted, in an issue of the National Pioneer, a four-page paper published in this village in 1829-30, that in 75 years from the date of his communication Milton would rank with the large villages on the Hudson River. In closing his article he wrote: "Milton will ever be, as she is to-day, the center of the commercial gravity of this section."

The first Pastor of the Milton M. E. Church was the Rev. D. W. C. VanGaasbeek, who preached here in 1858 and 1859. The following pastors have since that time occupied the pulpit: In 1860, the Rev. J. A. Edwards; 1861 and 1862, the Rev. J. W. Smith; 1863, the Rev. N. Hunt; 1864 and 1865, the Rev. E. S. Osbon; 1866 and 1867, the Rev. J. Craft; 1868 and 1869, the Rev. D. Phillips; 1870 and 1872, the Rev. P. C. Oakley; 1873 and 1874, the Rev. H. Wood; 1875, the Rev. F. D. Adams; 1876 and 1877, the Rev. C. Palmer; 1878, the Rev. E. H. Roys; 1879, the Rev. J. L. McKown and the Rev. H. Jackson; 1880 and 1882, the Rev. C. C. Miller; 1883 and 1885, the Rev. C. F. Wixon; 1886 and 1887, the Rev. Charles Snediker; 1888 and 1889, the Rev. E. S. Bishop.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

Young wives who have old husbands will be glad to know that a New-York physician offers to cure snoring for ten dollars; but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure sore throats and colds for 25 cents.

A LUCKY MAN.

Mr. Lyman Crawford, Druggist, of Springfield, Mass., says: For years I was afflicted with kidney disease in its worst form, and I state, with a perfect recollection of all that was done for me, that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., gave me permanent relief.

If your druggist does not keep the medicine, address the proprietor, Rondout, N. Y.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourbon, Ind. says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

I suffered from a very severe cold in my head for months and used everything recommended but could get no relief. Was advised to use Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like magic in its cure. I am free from my cold after using the Balm one week, and I believe it is the best remedy known. Feeling grateful for what it has done for me I send this testimonial.—Samuel J. Harris, Wholesale Grocer, 119 Front-street, New York.

ELECTRIC BITTERS.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers. For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle at VanDeusen Bros. Rondout, and F. J. R. Clark's, Kingston, Drug Stores.

POSITIVELY UGLY FACES

Can be made clear and attractive. Those horrid pimples and blotches can be removed by one application of Hop Ointment. Never fails. Take no other. 25 cents, at druggists, or mail stamps to the Hop Co., New-London, Conn.

Sick headache is readily cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones and regulates the digestion, and creates an appetite.

There is no one article in the line of medicines that gives so large a return for the money as a good porous strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Bachache Plasters.

Avoid Appearances.—A worthy gentleman, having an unusually red nose, was long suspected of being a tippler on the sly, by those not acquainted with his strictly temperate habits. His unfortunate disfigurement was readily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

INTERESTED PEOPLE.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50 cents and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

A HAPPY WOMAN.

Happy is the woman without bodily ills, but happier is the woman who having them knows of the saving properties of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When relieved, as she surely will be upon a trial of it, she can contrast her condition with her former one of suffering and appreciate health as none can who have not for a time been deprived of it. The "Favorite Prescription" corrects unnatural discharges and cures all "weakness" and irregularities.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

THEY "MEAN BUSINESS."

For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have offered in good faith $500 reward for a case of Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. This wonderful remedy has fairly attained a world-wide reputation. If you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, purulent, bloody and putrid; if the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; if there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers, the voice being changed and has a nasal twang; the breath offensive; smell and taste impaired; sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debilty, you are suffering from nasal catarrh. The more complicated your disease, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians.

LOST.—"I don't know where, I can't tell when, I don't see how—something of great value to me, and for the return of which I shall be truly thankful, viz: a good appetite."

FOUND.—"Health and strength, pure blood, an appetite like that of a wolf, regular digestion, all by taking that popular and peculiar medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. I want everybody to try it this season." It is sold by all druggists. One hundred doses one dollar.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulities, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend he Favorite Remedy. It was and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

Acknowledged by all who have used it to be the most wonderful cure in the world for Coughs and Colds.

Is warranted to cure any ordinary cough or cold or your money is returned. A pleasant, swift and sure cure for Coughs and Colds.

If taken as soon as you feel that irritation or dryness of the throat, occasioned by a cold, four to six doses will cure.

It won't cure a horrible sore throat in one night, nor in fact will it cure anything in that space of time. It takes at least a day or so to cure a cold, but

IT GETS THERE ALL THE SAME.

It stops your cough almost at once, but should you stop taking it after two or three doses probably your cough would return. One thing you can always be sure of: Long before you have emptied the bottle you will be "all O. K."

As a trial of this truly wonderful medicine costs nothing, and as 95 cases out of every 100 will be cured it is well worth your while to at least make the trial.

Price per bottle containing half a pint (enough to cure eight people if taken in time),

TERRIFIED PASSENGERS.

TRAIN FIRED INTO BY MEN WITH SHOT GUNS NEAR CHICAGO.

People Who Were Injured—White Cap Outrage in Kansas—Woman Who Died of Fright and Fatigue—Excitement—Other Telegraph News.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, March 7.—The Cincinnati Express which came in on the Louisville, New-Albany & Chicago Railroad last evening brought a badly-scared lot of passengers. Two hours before reaching Chicago the train was fired upon by an unknown man who took deliberate aim at the rear coach and sent two loads of duck-shot crashing through the windows. Some of the passengers narrowly escaped. The shooting took place at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The train, an unusually large one, was behind time and was running at a high rate of speed, not stopping at small stations. When a mile south of Rose Lawn, a station in Indiana, 56 miles from Chicago, the engineer noticed two men standing near the track. One had a double-barreled shot-gun. Supposing they were hunters, he paid no especial attention to them. The men stood motionless until the last coach was abreast of them, when the man with the gun leveled it and fired both barrels. It made a loud report and the terrified passengers sprang from their seats as the shot crashed through the windows, and sent a shower of broken glass flying over the car. For an instant they were almost paralyzed with fear, but realizing what had happened, some ran to the rear door, and saw the men still standing by the track. An instant later the train sped around a curve. One of the passengers jerked the bell-cord, but there was so much slack that the gong in the locomotive cab did not ring. The train could not be stopped until a passenger ran ahead to the baggage-car, where the Conductor was found, and by that time several miles had been covered and the Conductor would not turn back. An examination of the coach showed that the last four windows on the left side were smashed to atoms. The outside of the car was riddled with shot, and a handful of the missiles was picked up from the car floor. Several of the passengers were slightly cut in the hands and face by broken glass, and T. S. Tanner, of Chicago, found a shot embedded in his scalp. The Railroad Company has sent out officers to hunt down the miscreants.

WHITE CAP OUTRAGE IN KANSAS.

Man's Wife Dies of Fright and Fatigue; Warrant for Arrest Seemed.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WICHITA, Kans., March 7.—Ira Campbell, of this City, moved to a farm near here on Tuesday, and at 10 o'clock at night he was visited by a dozen White Caps, who made their presence known by firing several rounds at the roof of the house. The Captain called Campbell and told him he must leave the house with his family by midnight or they would be killed. Campbell, fearing the worst, put his family in a wagon and reached his former home here yesterday morning. His wife had been ill for some days and the fright and fatigue made her so much worse that she died last evening. Campbell says the party was well disguised, but he thinks he knows one member and a warrant has been sworn out for his arrest. There is much excitement here over the affair and threats of lynching are made.

In closing his article he wrote: "Milton will ever be, as she is to-day, the center of the commercial gravity of this section."

Sick headache is readily cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones and regulates the digestion, and creates an appetite.

Avoid Appearances.—A worthy gentleman, having an unusually red nose, was long suspected of being a tippler on the sly, by those not acquainted with his strictly temperate habits. His unfortunate disfigurement was readily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

INTERESTED PEOPLE.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50 cents and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

A HAPPY WOMAN.

Happy is the woman without bodily ills, but happier is the woman who having them knows of the saving properties of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When relieved, as she surely will be upon a trial of it, she can contrast her condition with her former one of suffering and appreciate health as none can who have not for a time been deprived of it. The "Favorite Prescription" corrects unnatural discharges and cures all "weakness" and irregularities.

Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

THEY "MEAN BUSINESS."

For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have offered in good faith $500 reward for a case of Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. This wonderful remedy has fairly attained a world-wide reputation. If you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, purulent, bloody and putrid; if the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; if there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers, the voice being changed and has a nasal twang; the breath offensive; smell and taste impaired; sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debilty, you are suffering from nasal catarrh. The more complicated your disease, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians.

LOST.—"I don't know where, I can't tell when, I don't see how—something of great value to me, and for the return of which I shall be truly thankful, viz: a good appetite."

FOUND.—"Health and strength, pure blood, an appetite like that of a wolf, regular digestion, all by taking that popular and peculiar medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. I want everybody to try it this season." It is sold by all druggists. One hundred doses one dollar.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend he Favorite Remedy. It was

and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

FIRE DESTROYS A TANNERY

AT SHOKAN, AT AN EARLY HOUR THIS MORNING.

The Building Entirely Consumed, Together With a Large Amount of Stock—The Loss and Insurance—Thrown Out of Employment.

At about 2 o'clock this morning, the large tannery owned by McKinstry & Deyo, at Shokan, was discovered on fire. An effort was made by people of the place to save the building from total destruction, but their efforts were fruitless, the structure soon being reduced to a pile of smoldering ashes.

IN THE LOFTS.

In the lofts of the tannery were stored many bundles of leather, all of which were consumed. Most of the stock in the vats is believed to be uninjured.

LOADED WITH BARK.

On the Ulster & Delaware Railroad track near the tannery, stood about 16 cars laden with bark. They were pulled out of danger.

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE.

The fire is believed to have originated in the bark mill, as flames were first discovered there. A high wind was blowing, and the fire burned rapidly, which prevented the saving of any of the stock in the building. The flames lit up the surrounding country.

THROWN OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.

A large number of men are thrown out of employment by the disaster, and the loss will be felt by the people of the place as well as by the owners.

LOSS AND INSURANCE.

An effort was made to-day to learn the loss and insurance, but neither McKinstry nor Deyo could be found, they having left the place early this morning on business. It is understood, however, that the tannery and stock were not fully insured.

WILL PROBABLY REBUILD.

Messrs. McKinstry and Deyo expect to rebuild the tannery as soon as the insurance is settled. They have about 1,500 tons of bark on hand and have engaged 500 tons to be delivered this spring.

OPENING OF NAVIGATION IS NEAR.

The Ice on the Hudson River is Slowly Wearing Away.

The Hudson River is now comparatively clear from ice for several miles north of this City. Occasionally a mass of broken ice could be seen floating past the mouth of the Rondout Creek, to-day, though not sufficient to impede the progress of the ferry-boat Transport. Yesterday the ice was reported as being "on the move" as far north as Albany, and large fields crashed into one another at various places. It is reported there is an ice jam at New-Baltimore, where the channel is narrow, and that it will require a few days of warm weather to break it up. At Crum Elbow, about four miles this side of Highland, the ice is still reported to be blockaded and heaped up many feet in height, though above that point the Hudson is clear. On the east and west shores of the Hudson there is still considerable ice, but it is said to be so thin that no difficulty would be experienced if navigation were at once resumed.

Boatmen, however, do not favor an opening of navigation for at least a month to come. They argue there is not enough business to be done at present.

BOATS AND BOATMEN.

The boiler of the propeller S. L. Crosby is being repaired in Rondout.

A large brick scow on Allen Brothers' shipyard, Ponckhockie, is nearly completed.

The steamers of the Cornell Steamboat Company present a bright appearance in their spring suits of paint.

The owners of the steamboat Ansonia, at Saugerties, will occupy the two lower storehouses in the Creek this season.

The barge A. S. Staples, which has been lying at East Kingston during the past winter, was yesterday towed to the Railroad Dock, Ponckhockie, where it is being laden with cordwood for Staples' brickyard.

MINOR NOTES AROUND THIS TOWN.

Heard by Attaches of "The Daily Freeman" on the Streets To-Day.

Fair, slightly cooler, northwesterly winds is what "Indications" promises for to-morrow.

Senator Linson is in Kingston this week during the inaugural recess of the Legislature.

The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company, of this City, will hold a meeting this evening.

There was a heavy snow squall in the Catskill Mountains to-day. It was seen by Kingston people.

Alderman Henry Wieber and wife, of Rondout, arrived home to-day from Washington, where they witnessed the inauguration of President Harrison and attended the inaugural ball.

Last evening Abram Myers, of Kingston, celebrated his sixty-second birthday. Among those who called at the residence and congratulated Mr. Myers and wife were the Rev. J. L. Davis and wife.

INDEPENDENT ORDER GOOD TEMPLARS.

A Lecturer to be Engaged to Work in Ulster County.

At the annual session of Ulster Lodge, I. O. G. T., which was held in the rooms of Rondout Lodge, No. 730, in the Newkirk building, Union-avenue, Rondout, yesterday, after the election and installation of officers—as published in THE FREEMAN of last evening—matters pertaining to the good of the order were considered, and phases of the work were discussed. It was decided that a lecturer be engaged to work through Ulster County in the interest of the County Lodge. The first lecture will be given in this City on March 19. The next quarterly session of the Lodge will be held at Creek Locks, June 5.

SHE BECAME VIOLENTLY INSANE.

An Ulster County Woman Taken to an Asylum—Facts.

An elderly widow named Maria Jansen, a resident of Napanoch, Ulster County, while on a visit to her brother, P. M. Goothes, of Catskill, became violently insane. The County Judge of Greene County directed officers to take her to Ulster County to be examined. She was brought before County Judge William S. Kenyon, Kingston, on Wednesday. She was examined by Drs. Robert and E. H. Loughran, pronounced insane, and an order was made sending her to the Middletown Insane Asylum.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BARN TO-DAY.

Sudden Death of a Marlborough Fruit Grower—Inquest to be Held.

A dispatch to THE FREEMAN from Marlborough, this afternoon, stated: P. H. Lawrence, a well known Marlborough fruit grower, was found dead in his barn here, at noon, to-day. It is believed that death was caused by heart disease. He was apparently in the best of health when last seen alive by relatives. A Coroner's inquest will be held.

Assignment.

A general assignment was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by Andrew B. Krom, a crockery merchant of Kingston, to Martin Hauver. The preferences were made in the following order: Expenses of assignment; employes; note of Martin Hauver, $300, held by Ulster County National Bank; note of Hauver for $200, money loaned; note endorsed by Wells L. Schoonmaker for $350; note of Wells L. Schoonmaker for $225, money loaned.

BRIEF SKETCH OF LATE MRS. MCENTEE

Was Probably Oldest Native-Born Resident of this Place.

The funeral of Mrs. Christina McEntee, widow of the late Charles McEntee, who died at the residence of her son, Colonel John McEntee, Rondout, on Tuesday night, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Irving Magee, Pastor of the Wurts-Street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The funeral was attended by many sympathizing friends.

Mrs. McEntee had attained the eightieth year of her age, and at the time of her death was probably the oldest native born resident of this place. She was a lady of those rare and gentle graces, which do not assert themselves, but which never fail of recognition among those of refinement and culture. She loved retirement and pursued a walk of such quiet goodness that only the intimate few learned to know the charm of her beautiful life. The innate and finer traits were seen less in herself perhaps than in her children, to whom she bequeathed them. But it was these that shone out so clearly in her later life and made the close of it becoming and peaceful. Mrs. McEntee was the daughter of William Tremper and Ann Tappen, her ancestors being among the oldest inhabitants of this City. She was born in the house now occupied by John R. Stebbins, and with the exception of a few years of temporary absence, she has always resided here. She had been associated with the chief events that go to make up the history of this City, and her departure narrows down to a very small limit those who can see back to the beginning of things here. She never severed her connection with the Rondout Presbyterian Church. She was the last one of its original members, a firm believer in its teachings and a faithful follower of Christ. Her reminiscences of this place and people were vivid and interesting, as her recollection covered many years of observation, combined with the experiences of an active and thoughtful life. Four children survive her, Colonel John McEntee, Mrs. Julia Dillon, Mrs. F. O. Norton and Mrs. Theodore Brown. In their sorrow they may regard with satisfaction a life so worthy and an end so peaceful.

OTHER DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. John Campbell was held from St. Joseph's Church, Kingston, yesterday. The Rev. Edward McCue, Assistant Pastor, officiated. There was a large attendance.

The funeral of Mrs. Wilhelmina Ertelt, of Rondout, was held this afternoon. Services were held in the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, and there was a large attendance. The Rev. M. Schmidtkonz officiated.

SOME PHASES OF THE SEAMY SIDE.

Arrested and Locked Up—Sent to the Albany Penitentiary.

John McCormick, of Catskill, has been sent to the Albany Penitentiary for six months for brutally assaulting a four-year-old boy. He was arrested by an officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

A dispatch from Troy to THE FREEMAN, to-day, stated: William Taylor was arraigned before Justice Grogan, of West-Troy, this morning, on suspicion of murdering his mother, Mrs Catherine Taylor, on Monday night. Taylor was committed to await the result of the Coroner's inquest, which will be held Monday night. He denies all knowledge of the crime. The axe with which the murder was committed has not been found.

William Burke, the man who stabbed John Boylan in the side at Egbert Humphrey's Hotel, town of Kingston, on Tuesday night, was arrested, yesterday, and locked up in the Ulster County Jail in Kingston. The warrant was issued for Burke's arrest by Philip Cahill, a Justice of the Peacee of that town. Burke claims that he did the stabbing in self-defense. Boylan's escape from instant death, it is said, was narrow, and there are fears that inflammation or internal hemorrhage will set in, in which case he will probably die. The case was sent to the Grand Jury. The defendant waived examination.

RECORDER'S COURT.

Two young men said to be residents of Connecticut, were arrested in Rondout to-day by Deputy Sheriff Cassidy for intoxication and disorderly conduct. They will be taken before the Recorder.

A man, who gave as his name Charles Meyer, was arraigned before Recorder Hussey this forenoon for "stealing rides" on the West Shore Railroad. He was sentenced to the Ulster County Jail, at Kingston, for 30 days.

AFFAIRS OF FRIENDLY SOCIETIES.

Royal Arch Degree Conferred Upon Candidates—Quartette Club.

A. Schultz, Permanent Secretary of Adler Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., of Poughkeepsie, has been presented with a gold-headed cane by the members of the Lodge.

The entertainment given by the members of the Rondout Quartette Club, one night recently, at Alligerville, Ulster County, was highly appreciated by a large audience.

At the regular convocation of Mount Horeb Chapter, No. 75, R. A. M., in Kingston, last evening, the Royal Arch Degree was ably and impressively conferred upon three candidates, visiting Companions from Highland Chapter, No. 52, of Newburgh, occupying the principal stations, as follows: Most Excellent Charles Estabrook, as High Priest; Companion Cornelius S. Gibb [the present District Deputy Grand Master of the Tenth Masonic District], as Captain of the Host; Companion Edward M. Murtfeldt, as Principal Sojourner; Companion William H. Fowler, Master of the First Vail. At the conclusion of the degree a banquet was served in the dining hall adjoining the lodge room. At the next regular convocation, on Wednesday, March 20, the Mark Master's Degree will be conferred.

BOVINA, DELAWARE CO. MAN MISSING.

A Reward of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars is Offered.

Two hundred and fifty dollars' reward has been offered for the discovery of the whereabouts of Frederick McFarland, late a resident of Bovina, Delaware County, N. Y., who was last seen when a Grand Juryman at Delhi on February 21, 1889. The same reward will be paid for the body of McFarland if dead. McFarland is, or was, a farmer, about 52 years old, of medium size, light hair and red whiskers and moustache mixed with gray. When last seen he wore a soft black hat, dark clothes and no overcoat.

A Shameful Sight.

On Union-street, Rondout, last night, a woman, beastly intoxicated, and carrying a child in her arms, staggered and fell into a large ash-box. She was accompanied by a man who said he was her husband. He, too, was intoxicated. On being questioned the woman said she lived in Poughkeepsie.

Man and Horse Both Dead.

A man named Hugh Clemments, of West Ghent, Columbia County, went to Stockport, Tuesday, and imbibed freely of intoxicants. On returning in the evening he drove off an embankment, and on Wednesday was found dead on the body of his horse, which was also dead.

Case of Local Interest.

Among the causes argued before the Second Division of the Court of Appeals at Albany to-day was the case of James E. Ostrander, of Kingston, respondent, vs. John Weber, Rondout, appellant, et al., argued by J. W. Fiero for appellant; John F. Cloonan for respondent.

Going Back.

Large figures and large plaids abound in the material displayed for spring costumes for ladies, and many articles for wearing apparel are patterned after styles in vogue a hundred years ago.

Enlarged.

Mead's Mountain House has been enlarged for the season of 1889.

SOME ELECTION DAY ECHOES

ULSTER COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS A TIE.

The Result in Towns—The New Board of Aldermen of This City—Political News From Other Places—Some Facts and Figures.

Returns received by THE FREEMAN to-day show that the newly-elected Board of Supervisors of this County is a tie, as was published in last evening's issue. This may result in a deadlock over the election of a Chairman, as was the case three years ago, when 176 ballots were taken before an agreement was arrived at.

The Board of Aldermen of this City is also a tie, but a Republican Mayor presides.

IN ULSTER COUNTY.

The majority of Herman Craft, for Supervisor, town of Marbletown, is 252.

Walter W. Cox, Democrat, town of Wawarsing, has a majority of 147 for Supervisor.

The majority of John H. Davis, Republican, for Supervisor in the town of Rochester, is 15.

In the town of Shawangunk Walstein Childs, Democrat, was elected Supervisor by 108 majority.

In the town of Shandaken George Lament, Democrat, was elected Supervisor by 51 majority. The total number of votes cast was 651.

Radcliff Delamater has again been elected Town Clerk of Marbletown. He has held the office since the year 1851 with the exception of two years.

One thousand less votes were cast on Tuesday in the town of Saugerties than at last fall's election. The total vote is less than 1,700. Last fall the vote was 2,700.

The majority of Alfred Reynolds, Republican, for Supervisor, over William F. Cooper, Democrat, was 18. The rest of the Republican ticket was elected by majorities ranging from 48 to 136.

Uriah VanEtten, Republican Supervisor, had a majority of 246 over E. P. Simmons, Democrat, in the town of Saugerties. Every candidate on the Republican ticket was elected with the exception of Excise Commissioner.

IN OTHER COUNTIES.

In the town of Lexington, Greene County, Christopher Riley, Democrat, was elected Supervisor.

The incorporation of Middletown as a City last year adds four members to the Orange County Board of Supervisors, making 26 in all. The Board this year will stand Democrats 18, Republicans eight. Last year's Board consisted of 14 Democrats and eight Republicans.

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

American Opera Company Coming—Miss Settie Blume—Barry and Fay.

The entertainments given by the Irving Club Minstrels, at Saugerties, this week, have been largely attended and successful.

The American Opera Company will be at Kingston Opera House, on Wednesday evening, March 20. This Company numbers 80 people.

At the Academy of Music, this City, on March 18, Professor George Bartholomew and his "Equine Paradox" will give an entertainment. The animals are said to be remarkably intelligent, and perform many astonishing tricks.

The Jersey City Evening Journal has said the following of Miss Settie Blume, of New-York, who, with Miss S. Crosby, of Rondout, will assist at an entertainment in Liscomb's Opera House, on March 18, for the benefit of the Congregation Emanuel: "Miss Blume's readings gave evidence of careful study on her part, and the efforts of this gifted young artist must soon give her a high position."

On Friday night Barry and Fay, well known Irish comedians, will appear in Liscomb's Opera House, Rondout, in the laughable comedy entitled 'McKenna's Flirtation.' The Chicago Inter-Ocean says of the play: "Barry and Fay, in McKenna's Flirtation," attracted another large audience last evening at the Academy. These clever comedians have congenial roles in their new comedy, and appear destined to duplicate the success they achieved in 'Muldoon's Picnic.' Lotta occupied a box at the Sunday matinee, and seemed to be highly entertained at the fund of fun developed in the 'Flirtation.'"

THE CONSTABLES SPECULATING

As to Which Two of Their Number Will be the "Lot."

At the first meeting of this City's Common Council a new law relative to Constables will be enforced, under Chapter 24, Laws of New-York, entitled "An act to amend Section 16 of the laws of 1872, entitled an act to incorporate the City of Kingston." Section 16 says:

All officers appointed or elected under this act, except Mayor, Recorder, Justice of the Peace, Assessors, Aldermen and Constables, and also and except as further excepted in this act, shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors shall qualify; but of such four Constables as shall be elected at the charter election next ensuing, the Common Council at its first meeting thereafter shall choose, by lot, two Constables to serve for one year and two to serve for two years; and thereafter two Constables shall be elected each year to serve for two years, one of whom shall be a resident of the First, Second, Eighth or Ninth Wards, and one of the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth or Seventh Wards.

This law creates considerable speculation among the Constables. To name the officers who shall serve two years by "lot" is considered by them as meaning by "chance" of some kind and not by ballot. The foregoing law was approved by the Governor May 4, 1888, and hence was too late to enforce its provisions last year.

Sporting Matters Noted.

The members of the Saugerties Game and Fish Club will hold their annual meeting on Friday evening.

There have been 40,000 trout fry placed in the Shingle Kill and Kiskatom Creeks in Greene County.

The second annual dog show opened in Albany, Tuesday, under favorable auspices. The number of fine canines entered is remarkably large.

It is said that the New-York Club will use a Delaware & Hudson Canal mule the coming base ball season as a mascot. If the Club does there is no doubt but that the championship pennant will remain where it is, as those animals have acquired a reputation of "knocking out" anything placed against them.

Mistaken Idea.

It is a mistaken idea of some people that the law makes it the duty of Inspectors of Election to file the returns of the spring elections with the County Clerk. The law only applies to fall elections. The only return to be made to the County Clerk is a notification by the Town Clerks of the election of Justices of the Peace, etc., officers who must place their signatures on the County Clerk's book.

Many Bears were Killed.

R. E. Best, of Kingston, said, this forenoon, that during his 38 years' residence in this City, he has never seen so many bear skins sold here in one season as the past winter. The skins of 13 bears killed in the Catskill Mountains were disposed of in Kingston. Many were sent to New-York and other places. This shows that a large number of bears were killed in the Catskills this year.

WHEN A HAM-BONE TASTED SWEET.

An Incident That Occurred During the War—Comment.

A portly Kingston citizen entered a meat market, this morning, and said: "I guess I'll take a small ham." While the marketman was tying up the ham the citizen remarked: "I never buy a ham but that I think of an incident that happened during the war. My regiment had been hurried up in Maryland to help the boys at Gettysburgh. We left our knapsacks and everything else that might impede our movements in Washington. We hadn't time to draw rations before starting out, and the result was that, after a day and a night's tramping, we found that we were footsore and hungry, without anything to satisfy our cravings. I was so tired that I laid down in the grass by the roadside and fell asleep. When I awoke my hunger fairly gnawed my vitals. A group of officers sat about 30 feet away from me, as tired as I was. They were discussing the quality of a ham bone which one of the number had obtained. They passed it from one to the other, each taking a bite. When they had eaten off about all the meat, one of them gave it a toss, and it fell in the grass. I crawled up to where that bone was, and eagerly grasped it. It was the sweetest meat, I thought, I had ever eaten." "It don't look much like it now, does it?" said the marketman, as he surveyed the citizen's ample proportions.

FIRE DESTROYS A TANNERY

AT SHOKAN, AT AN EARLY HOUR THIS MORNING.

The Building Entirely Consumed, Together With a Large Amount of Stock—The Loss and Insurance—Thrown Out of Employment.

At about 2 o'clock this morning, the large tannery owned by McKinstry & Deyo, at Shokan, was discovered on fire. An effort was made by people of the place to save the building from total destruction, but their efforts were fruitless, the structure soon being reduced to a pile of smoldering ashes.

IN THE LOFTS.

In the lofts of the tannery were stored many bundles of leather, all of which were consumed. Most of the stock in the vats is believed to be uninjured.

LOADED WITH BARK.

On the Ulster & Delaware Railroad track near the tannery, stood about 16 cars laden with bark. They were pulled out of danger.

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE.

The fire is believed to have originated in the bark mill, as flames were first discovered there. A high wind was blowing, and the fire burned rapidly, which prevented the saving of any of the stock in the building. The flames lit up the surrounding country.

THROWN OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.

A large number of men are thrown out of employment by the disaster, and the loss will be felt by the people of the place as well as by the owners.

LOSS AND INSURANCE.

An effort was made to-day to learn the loss and insurance, but neither McKinstry nor Deyo could be found, they having left the place early this morning on business. It is understood, however, that the tannery and stock were not fully insured.

WILL PROBABLY REBUILD.

Messrs. McKinstry and Deyo expect to rebuild the tannery as soon as the insurance is settled. They have about 1,500 tons of bark on hand and have engaged 500 tons to be delivered this spring.

OPENING OF NAVIGATION IS NEAR.

The Ice on the Hudson River is Slowly Wearing Away.

The Hudson River is now comparatively clear from ice for several miles north of this City. Occasionally a mass of broken ice could be seen floating past the mouth of the Rondout Creek, to-day, though not sufficient to impede the progress of the ferry-boat Transport. Yesterday the ice was reported as being "on the move" as far north as Albany, and large fields crashed into one another at various places. It is reported there is an ice jam at New-Baltimore, where the channel is narrow, and that it will require a few days of warm weather to break it up. At Crum Elbow, about four miles this side of Highland, the ice is still reported to be blockaded and heaped up many feet in height, though above that point the Hudson is clear. On the east and west shores of the Hudson there is still considerable ice, but it is said to be so thin that no difficulty would be experienced if navigation were at once resumed.

Boatmen, however, do not favor an opening of navigation for at least a month to come. They argue there is not enough business to be done at present.

BOATS AND BOATMEN.

The boiler of the propeller S. L. Crosby is being repaired in Rondout.

A large brick scow on Allen Brothers' shipyard, Ponckhockie, is nearly completed.

The steamers of the Cornell Steamboat Company present a bright appearance in their spring suits of paint.

The owners of the steamboat Ansonia, at Saugerties, will occupy the two lower storehouses in the Creek this season.

The barge A. S. Staples, which has been lying at East Kingston during the past winter, was yesterday towed to the Railroad Dock, Ponckhockie, where it is being laden with cordwood for Staples' brickyard.

MINOR NOTES AROUND THIS TOWN.

At the annual session of Ulster Lodge, I. O. G. T., which was held in the rooms of Rondout Lodge, No. 730, in the Newkirk building, Union-avenue, Rondout, yesterday, after the election and installation of officers—as published in THE FREEMAN of last evening—matters pertaining to the good of the order were considered, and phases of the work were discussed. It was decided that a lecturer be engaged to work through Ulster County in the interest of the County Lodge. The first lecture will be given in this City on March 19. The next quarterly session of the Lodge will be held at Creek Locks, June 5.

SHE BECAME VIOLENTLY INSANE.

An Ulster County Woman Taken to an Asylum—Facts.

The County Judge of Greene County directed officers to take her to Ulster County to be examined. She was brought before County Judge William S. Kenyon, Kingston, on Wednesday. She was examined by Drs. Robert and E. H. Loughran, pronounced insane, and an order was made sending her to the Middletown Insane Asylum.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BARN TO-DAY.

Sudden Death of a Marlborough Fruit Grower—Inquest to be Held.

A dispatch to THE FREEMAN from Marlborough, this afternoon, stated: P. H. Lawrence, a well known Marlborough fruit grower, was found dead in his barn here, at noon, to-day. It is believed that death was caused by heart disease. He was apparently in the best of health when last seen alive by relatives. A Coroner's inquest will be held.

Assignment.

A general assignment was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by Andrew B. Krom, a crockery merchant of Kingston, to Martin Hauver. The preferences were made in the following order: Expenses of assignment; employes; note of Martin Hauver, $800, held by Ulster County National Bank; note of Hauver for $200, money loaned; note endorsed by Wells L. Schoonmaker for $350; note of Wells L. Schoonmaker for $235, money loaned.

BRIEF SKETCH OF LATE MRS. MCENTEE

Was Probably Oldest Native-Born Resident of this Place.

The funeral of Mrs. Christina McEntee, widow of the late Charles McEntee, who died at the residence of her son, Colonel John McEntee, Rondout, on Tuesday night, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Irving Magee, Pastor of the Wurts-Street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The funeral was attended by many sympathizing friends.

Mrs. McEntee had attained the eightieth year of her age, and at the time of her death was probably the oldest native born resident of this place. She was a lady of those rare and gentle graces, which do not assert themselves, but which never fail of recognition among those of refinement and culture. She loved retirement and pursued a walk of such quiet goodness that only the intimate few learned to know the charm of her beautiful life. The innate and finer traits were seen less in herself perhaps than in her children, to whom she bequeathed them. But it was these that shone out so clearly in her later life and made the close of it becoming and peaceful. Mrs. McEntee was the daughter of William Tremper and Ann Tappen, her ancestors being among the oldest inhabitants of this City. She was born in the house now occupied by John R. Stebbins, and with the exception of a few years of temporary absence, she has always resided here. She had been associated with the chief events that go to make up the history of this City, and her departure narrows down to a very small limit those who can see back to the beginning of things here. She never severed her connection with the Rondout Presbyterian Church. She was the last one of its original members, a firm believer in its teachings and a faithful follower of Christ. Her reminiscences of this place and people were vivid and interesting, as her recollection covered many years of observation, combined with the experiences of an active and thoughtful life. Four children survive her, Colonel John McEntee, Mrs. Julia Dillon, Mrs. F. O. Norton and Mrs. Theodore Brown. In their sorrow they may regard with satisfaction a life so worthy and an end so peaceful.

OTHER DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. John Campbell was held from St. Joseph's Church, Kingston, yesterday. The Rev. Edward McCue, Assistant Pastor, officiated. There was a large attendance.

The funeral of Mrs. Wilhelmina Ertelt, of Rondout, was held this afternoon. Services were held in the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, and there was a large attendance. The Rev. M. Schmidtkonz officiated.

SOME PHASES OF THE SEAMY SIDE.

Arrested and Locked Up—Sent to the Albany Penitentiary.

John McCormick, of Catskill, has been sent to the Albany Penitentiary for six months for brutally assaulting a four-year-old boy. He was arrested by an officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

A dispatch from Troy to THE FREEMAN, to-day, stated: William Taylor was arraigned before Justice Grogan, of West-Troy, this morning, on suspicion of murdering his mother, Mrs Catherine Taylor, on Monday night. Taylor was committed to await the result of the Coroner's inquest, which will be held Monday night. He denies all knowledge of the crime. The axe with which the murder was committed has not been found.

William Burke, the man who stabbed John Boylan in the side at Egbert Humphrey's Hotel, town of Kingston, on Tuesday night, was arrested, yesterday, and locked up in the Ulster County Jail in Kingston. The warrant was issued for Burke's arrest by Philip Cahill, a Justice of the Peacee of that town. Burke claims that he did the stabbing in self-defense. Boylan's escape from instant death, it is said, was narrow, and there are fears that inflammation or internal hemorrhage will set in, in which case he will probably die. The case was sent to the Grand Jury. The defendant waived examination.

RECORDER'S COURT.

Two young men said to be residents of Connecticut, were arrested in Rondout to-day by Deputy Sheriff Cassidy for intoxication and disorderly conduct. They will be taken before the Recorder.

A man, who gave as his name Charles Meyer, was arraigned before Recorder Hussey this forenoon for "stealing rides" on the West Shore Railroad. He was sentenced to the Ulster County Jail, at Kingston, for 30 days.

AFFAIRS OF FRIENDLY SOCIETIES.

Royal Arch Degree Conferred Upon Candidates—Quartette Club.

A. Schultz, Permanent Secretary of Adler Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., of Poughkeepsie, has been presented with a gold-headed cane by the members of the Lodge.

The entertainment given by the members of the Rondout Quartette Club, one night recently, at Alligerville, Ulster County, was highly appreciated by a large audience.

At the regular convocation of Mount Horeb Chapter, No. 75, R. A. M., in Kingston, last evening, the Royal Arch Degree was ably and impressively conferred upon three candidates, visiting Companions from Highland Chapter, No. 52, of Newburgh, occupying the principal stations, as follows: Most Excellent Charles Estabrook, as High Priest; Companion Cornelius S. Gibb [the present District Deputy Grand Master of the Tenth Masonic District], as Captain of the Host; Companion Edward M. Murtfeldt, as Principal Sojourner; Companion William H. Fowler, Master of the First Vail. At the conclusion of the degree a banquet was served in the dining hall adjoining the lodge room. At the next regular convocation, on Wednesday, March 20, the Mark Master's Degree will be conferred.

A Reward of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars is Offered.

Two hundred and fifty dollars' reward has been offered for the discovery of the whereabouts of Frederick McFarland, late a resident of Bovina, Delaware County, N. Y., who was last seen when a Grand Juryman at Delhi on February 21, 1889. The same reward will be paid for the body of McFarland if dead. McFarland is, or was, a farmer, about 52 years old, of medium size, light hair and red whiskers and moustache mixed with gray. When last seen he wore a soft black hat, dark clothes and no overcoat.

A Shameful Sight.

On Union-street, Rondout, last night, a woman, beastly intoxicated, and carrying a child in her arms, staggered and fell into a large ash-box. She was accompanied by a man who said he was her husband. He, too, was intoxicated. On being questioned the woman said she lived in Poughkeepsie.

Man and Horse Both Dead.

A man named Hugh Clemments, of West Ghent, Columbia County, went to Stockport, Tuesday, and imbibed freely of intoxicants. On returning in the evening he drove off an embankment, and on Wednesday was found dead on the body of his horse, which was also dead.

Case of Local Interest.

Among the causes argued before the Second Division of the Court of Appeals at Albany to-day was the case of James E. Ostrander, of Kingston, respondent, vs. John Weber, Rondout, appellant, et al., argued by J. W. Fiero for appellant; John F. Cloonan for respondent.

Going Back.

Large figures and large plaids abound in the material displayed for spring costumes for ladies, and many articles for wearing apparel are patterned after styles in vogue a hundred years ago.

Enlarged.

Mead's Mountain House has been enlarged for the season of 1889.

SOME ELECTION DAY ECHOES

ULSTER COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS A TIE.

The Result in Towns—The New Board of Aldermen of This City—Political News From Other Places—Some Facts and Figures.

Returns received by THE FREEMAN to-day show that the newly-elected Board of Supervisors of this County is a tie, as was published in last evening's issue. This may result in a deadlock over the election of a Chairman, as was the case three years ago, when 176 ballots were taken before an agreement was arrived at.

The Board of Aldermen of this City is also a tie, but a Republican Mayor presides.

IN ULSTER COUNTY.

The majority of Herman Craft, for Supervisor, town of Marbletown, is 252.

Walter W. Cox, Democrat, town of Wawarsing, has a majority of 147 for Supervisor.

The majority of John H. Davis, Republican, for Supervisor in the town of Rochester, is 15.

In the town of Shawangunk Walstein Childs, Democrat, was elected Supervisor by 108 majority.

In the town of Shandaken George Lament, Democrat, was elected Supervisor by 51 majority. The total number of votes cast was 651.

Radcliff Delamater has again been elected Town Clerk of Marbletown. He has held the office since the year 1851 with the exception of two years.

One thousand less votes were cast on Tuesday in the town of Saugerties than at last fall's election. The total vote is less than 1,700. Last fall the vote was 2,700.

The majority of Alfred Reynolds, Republican, for Supervisor, over William F. Cooper, Democrat, was 18. The rest of the Republican ticket was elected by majorities ranging from 48 to 136.

Uriah VanEtten, Republican Supervisor, had a majority of 246 over E. P. Simmons, Democrat, in the town of Saugerties. Every candidate on the Republican ticket was elected with the exception of Excise Commissioner.

IN OTHER COUNTIES.

In the town of Lexington, Greene County, Christopher Riley, Democrat, was elected Supervisor.

The incorporation of Middletown as a City last year adds four members to the Orange County Board of Supervisors, making 26 in all. The Board this year will stand Democrats 18, Republicans eight. Last year's Board consisted of 14 Democrats and eight Republicans.

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

American Opera Company Coming—Miss Settie Blume—Barry and Fay.

The entertainments given by the Irving Club Minstrels, at Saugerties, this week, have been largely attended and successful.

The American Opera Company will be at Kingston Opera House, on Wednesday evening, March 20. This Company numbers 80 people.

At the Academy of Music, this City, on March 18, Professor George Bartholomew and his "Equine Paradox" will give an entertainment. The animals are said to be remarkably intelligent, and perform many astonishing tricks.

The Jersey City Evening Journal has said the following of Miss Settie Blume, of New-York, who, with Miss S. Crosby, of Rondout, will assist at an entertainment in Liscomb's Opera House, on March 18, for the benefit of the Congregation Emanuel: "Miss Blume's readings gave evidence of careful study on her part, and the efforts of this gifted young artist must soon give her a high position."

On Friday night Barry and Fay, well known Irish comedians, will appear in Liscomb's Opera House, Rondout, in the laughable comedy entitled 'McKenna's Flirtation.' The Chicago Inter-Ocean says of the play: "Barry and Fay, in McKenna's Flirtation," attracted another large audience last evening at the Academy. These clever comedians have congenial roles in their new comedy, and appear destined to duplicate the success they achieved in 'Muldoon's Picnic.' Lotta occupied a box at the Sunday matinee, and seemed to be highly entertained at the fund of fun developed in the 'Flirtation.'"

THE CONSTABLES SPECULATING

As to Which Two of Their Number Will be the "Lot."

At the first meeting of this City's Common Council a new law relative to Constables will be enforced, under Chapter 24, Laws of New-York, entitled "An act to amend Section 16 of the laws of 1872, entitled an act to incorporate the City of Kingston." Section 16 says:

All officers appointed or elected under this act, except Mayor, Recorder, Justice of the Peace, Assessors, Aldermen and Constables, and also and except as further excepted in this act, shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors shall qualify; but of such four Constables as shall be elected at the charter election next ensuing, the Common Council at its first meeting thereafter shall choose, by lot, two Constables to serve for one year and two to serve for two years; and thereafter two Constables shall be elected each year to serve for two years, one of whom shall be a resident of the First, Second, Eighth or Ninth Wards, and one of the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth or Seventh Wards.

This law creates considerable speculation among the Constables. To name the officers who shall serve two years by "lot" is considered by them as meaning by "chance" of some kind and not by ballot. The foregoing law was approved by the Governor May 4, 1888, and hence was too late to enforce its provisions last year.

Sporting Matters Noted.

The members of the Saugerties Game and Fish Club will hold their annual meeting on Friday evening.

There have been 40,000 trout fry placed in the Shingle Kill and Kiskatom Creeks in Greene County.

The second annual dog show opened in Albany, Tuesday, under favorable auspices. The number of fine canines entered is remarkably large.

It is said that the New-York Club will use a Delaware & Hudson Canal mule the coming base ball season as a mascot. If the Club does there is no doubt but that the championship pennant will remain where it is, as those animals have acquired a reputation of "knocking out" anything placed against them.

Mistaken Idea.

It is a mistaken idea of some people that the law makes it the duty of Inspectors of Election to file the returns of the spring elections with the County Clerk. The law only applies to fall elections. The only return to be made to the County Clerk is a notification by the Town Clerks of the election of Justices of the Peace, etc., officers who must place their signatures on the County Clerk's book.

Many Bears were Killed.

R. E. Best, of Kingston, said, this forenoon, that during his 38 years' residence in this City, he has never seen so many bear skins sold here in one season as the past winter. The skins of 13 bears killed in the Catskill Mountains were disposed of in Kingston. Many were sent to New-York and other places. This shows that a large number of bears were killed in the Catskills this year.

Ice Notes.

The Knickerbocker Ice Company ceased ice gathering operations at Coxsackie at 8:15 o'clock on Saturday.

A. S. Washburn, of North Germantown, finished filling his ice house, on Saturday. He has 12,000 tons of ice of fine quality.

Preparing His Message.

Mayor Newkirk is preparing his message to be delivered before the Common Council, of this City, next Monday at the City Hall.

The will of Lewis T. Sheely, of the town of Marbletown, was offered for probate. Counsel appeared for several of the relatives and stated that they intended to contest the will. The formal proofs were taken, the witnesses being Simon P. Lyons and Denton Wilklow, after which an adjournment was taken to March 18, for the cross-examination of witnesses.

The will states that the Testator, at the time of the execution of the will, January 4, 1887, was 68 years of age. The following are the devises: To the daughter, Esther C. VanBramer, wife of William VanBramer, and to the sons, Davis and Silas Sheely, each $10; to Elizabeth A. Connor, wife of Witson Connor "my best horse and lumber one-horse wagon" and $50; to the sons, John and William Sheely, $1 each; to the daughter, Hannah M. Stokes, wife of Festus Stokes, and to the daughter Lucinda Ayres, wife of Oliver Ayres, the real estate. To Philip Ayres, son of Oliver Ayres, $25. The above legacies to be paid by the daughters Hannah and Lucinda. All the rest of the property, real and personal, is devised to Hannah M. Stokes and Lucinda Ayres. The son-in-law, Oliver Ayres, is appointed Executor.

Letters testamentary were issued to Isaac and Simon P. Hornbeck in the estate of Benjamin R. Hornbeck, town of Rochester.

In the last-mentioned estate, James H. Coutant and John J. Hait were appointed Appraisers. In the estate of Mary Hyland, town of Wawarsing, Goldsborough B. Garrison and E. D. Russell were appointed Appraisers.

WHEN A HAM-BONE TASTED SWEET.

An Incident That Occurred During the War—Comment.

A portly Kingston citizen entered a meat market, this morning, and said: "I guess I'll take a small ham." While the marketman was tying up the ham the citizen remarked: "I never buy a ham but that I think of an incident that happened during the war. My regiment had been hurried up in Maryland to help the boys at Gettysburgh. We left our knapsacks and everything else that might impede our movements in Washington. We hadn't time to draw rations before starting out, and the result was that, after a day and a night's tramping, we found that we were footsore and hungry, without anything to satisfy our cravings. I was so tired that I laid down in the grass by the roadside and fell asleep. When I awoke my hunger fairly gnawed my vitals. A group of officers sat about 30 feet away from me, as tired as I was. They were discussing the quality of a ham bone which one of the number had obtained. They passed it from one to the other, each taking a bite. When they had eaten off about all the meat, one of them gave it a toss, and it fell in the grass. I crawled up to where that bone was, and eagerly grasped it. It was the sweetest meat, I thought, I had ever eaten." "It don't look much like it now, does it?" said the marketman, as he surveyed the citizen's ample proportions.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE Albany Express speaks of the absconding Snaith as an "assisted" emigrant, and intimates that there are bigger reputations than his own at stake which his absence is expected to protect.

THE sales of tickets to the inauguration ball and promenade concert will amount to $70,000 when the money is all in. This pays the entire expense of the inaugeration and leaves a surplus of $20,000.

MR. CLEVELAND was cheered yesterday all the way from Washington to New York. He had never before seen the people so enthusiastic. His trip to Washington four years ago was a very tame affair comparatively.

SIR JULIAN PAUNCEFORTE is to start for the United States the latter part of March, to assume the office of British Minister. He will return to London for the summer, and bring his family to Washington in the fall.

OFFICIAL figures show the debt of Canada to be $236,000,000. It has increased 120 per cent in fourteen years, but the Minister of finance thinks the Dominion has valuable internal improvements to show for the increase.

EX SPEAKER CARLISLE'S gavel is missing. It was made of an elephant's tooth and was highly valued by the Kentucky statesman, who intended to carry it home with him. He is inconsolable over the loss, as there is no hope for him of ever receiving another.

ASSISTANT Secretaries Maynard and Thompson and Solicitor General Jenks have tendered their resignations, to take effect as soon as their services can be dispensed with. These gentlemen rightly interpret the will of the people as expressed at the late election.

THERE are fifteen gentlemen in Washington who want the office of Public Printer. There are 15,000 throughout the country who believe themselves as well qualified for the position as the man who is going to be bounced.

JUDAS ISCARIOT was arrested in New York yesterday, locked in the Tombs, and afterwards fined $5 for peddling gingerbread under the shadow of the Franklin statue. The occupation was honest, and the countenance of Franklin, who met his future wife while munching bread upon the streets, smiled benignantly upon him, but his name and the bag that he carried provoked the wrath of the court.

THE Mayor of Brooklyn is a member, ex officio, of the Kings County Board of Supervisors. The fact suggests a way to escape the impending deadlock in the Ulster county board. The City of Kingston has not an adequate representation in the Board in proportion to population and wealth, and our Mayors have all been men who would make good Supervisors.

R. C. JACKSON, ex-Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, second division, is being urged for re-appointment. The service has fallen into a shocking condition of inefficiency since his removal for a partisan purpose, and his restoration is asked for by Republicans and Democrats alike. Mr. Jackson was the founder of the system, and is thoroughly versed in all its details.

ROCHESTER'S three great breweries, the "Bartholomay," "Genesee" and "Rochester," were purchased yesterday by the English syndicate which is engaged in buying up all the profitable breweries in the state. The Bartholomay brought $2,500,000, the others $500,000 each. The buyers look for a profitable trade under the anti-license regime of David B. Hill.

THERE is a big rush for the new gold fields of Lower California. Workmen are leaving a new railroad on which they were employed near San Diego in a body, and the work has stopped. The gold area covers 100 miles square. The gold dust brought to San Diego and Ensenada Tuesday is valued at $13,000. Here is a chance for the new administration to start a territorial expansion policy. The United States will soon be turning greedy eyes upon this rich strip of Mexican territory.

THE Democratic Utica Observer states that the Democratic Mayor-elect of that city, Samuel J. Barrows, did not vote at the election. He rode by the polls in the afternoon and was hailed with a request to come and vote, but rode on, saying he would return. He was seen no more. He was to have been challenged as a resident of Dakota, where he is prosecuting his divorce suit. The Observer should see that he does not take the office, which is only for citizens of New York.

THE Senate met yesterday and adjourned, but in the afternoon a caucus of Republican members was held and a committee appointed to arrange the Republican share of the committees. There are only six new members in the present Senate, Wolcott of Colorado, McMillan of Michigan, Higgins of Delaware, Washburn of Minnesota, Marston of New Hampshire, and Barbour of Virginia. Marston is filling a vacancy for three months. Two years ago not less than fourteen changes took place.

KING MILAN of Servia has turned over his throne, crown and scepter to his thirteen-year-old son, who is to reign as Alexander I. It is to be hoped that the new monarch will lead a more exemplary career than his father, whose scandalous treatment of his wife, Natalie, is known the world over. Alexander has been with his mother in exile, and refused to leave her till called to the throne. He recently gave as a toast at an army banquet the name of his mother. Natalie will go home to Belgrade when the new government becomes established.

THE Detroit Free Press states that Postmaster General Dickinson is not personally disappointed over the result of the election, as he intended to leave Washington and return to his law practice on the 5th of March anyway. He had accepted office at a great sacrifice. The country knows very well that Dickinson entered into a contract to bring Mr. Cleveland the electoral vote of Michigan. Of course he failed to deliver the goods. But he is an able lawyer, and his practice is said to be worth $50,000 a year. Hence he wanted to go home, and was very glad to see Mr. Wanamaker.

SECRETARIES BESIEGED BY CALLERS.

Impromptu Receptions; Walker Blaine Occupies a Seat in State Department.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, March 7. — Secretaries Blaine, Proctor and Tracy came to their respective offices early this morning, but if they had any idea of attending to official business they must have abandoned it when they saw the number of people awaiting them. Senators, Representatives and high officials came in twos and threes, some brought friends and many ladies were among the callers. Russell Harrison, with a party of Montana people, made the rounds of the Departments. They called on the Secretaries only to pay their respects, and had no designs upon the officials. General Sherman and Admiral Porter were among the notables who attended the impromptu receptions. No official changes have yet been recorded in the subordinate offices; but Walker Blaine occupied the seat vacated by First Assistant Secretary Rives in the Department of State, and Thomas Sherman, who formerly served as Secretary Blaine's Private Secretary, was endeavoring to protect the Secretary from inroads of the public. Both of them have voluntarily taken hold to help smooth the way for the new administration, but in neither case has an appointment been made.

In the War Department William C. Endicott, Jr., continues to fill the post of Private Secretary. His father, the late Secretary of War, called upon his successor this morning, presumably to supply him with information respecting current business. Senators Paddock and Hawley, and Representative Dorsey, of Nebraska, were among Secretary Proctor's callers, and they subsequently called upon Secretaries Blaine and Tracy.

No appointment has not yet been made to fill the Private Secretaryship in the Navy Department, vacated by Mr. Fletcher, and the assistant is discharging the routine duties of the office. Ex-Senator Chandler called about mid-day upon Secretary Tracy, and had quite a long chat with him.

In all of the Executive Departments located in the State, War and Navy building the changes likely to result from the change in politics of the administration are few in number, because a long line of precedents favoring the continuation of the bureau chiefs in the State Department, while in the others the superior posts are mostly filled by detailed Army and Navy officers.

Assistant Secretary Thompson was Acting Secretary of the Treasury, to-day, at the request of Secretary Windom, who announced his intention of devoting the day to the reception of visitors. A large number of Senators and ex-members of Congress availed themselves of the opportunity afforded and called to pay their respects; and throughout the day the room of the Secretary was filled with visitors. No distinction was made in favor of politicians and the general public was largely represented.

The callers at the White House to-day outnumbered those of yesterday. It was about 9:30 o'clock when the President made his appearance in the official part of the house, and received the Inter-State Commerce Commissioners with the State Railroad Commissioners now in the City. Following them were about 1,000 persons who wished to shake the President's hand. When this task was over the President climbed the stairs only to find himself confronted with Senators, Representatives and office-seekers in scores. The greater number of them really called to pay their respects, but another and not inconsiderable number could not let pass the opportunity to whisper a word in favor of their particular candidates for various offices.

Soon after noon the Michigan delegation called by appointment. As they have not yet agreed upon the man and place they want, they did nothing more than exchange courtesies with the head of the new administration. After that, and until luncheon, the President's time was taken up in hand-shaking. Among those received were the Colored Editors and a Texas delegation. Ex-Postmaster General Kay, ex-Minister Sheneck and Senator Jones, of Arkansas, were among the morning callers. Mr. Harrison stated to-day he would have been very much pleased to have appointed in his Cabinet some one from California, and at an early date he suggested to the people of the Pacific Slope to unite upon two or three names from which he might select. They neglected to do this till quite late and finally when they did present some names, they stated specifically that no other positions in the Cabinet would be acceptable to them except the Secretary of the Interior or Attorney General. As matters in respect to these to offices had been settled or narrowed down to a couple of names from other states, it was impossible for him to accommodate them. This is the reason why the Pacific Slope proper did not have any representative in the Cabinet, as President Harrison himself had expected and hoped for a long time.

First Comptroller Durham, Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller and Fourth Auditor Shelley have tendered their resignations to Secretary Windom, to take effect at his convenience. Messrs. Mason, of West-Virginia, Montgomery, of Ohio, and Evans, of Kentucky, are the leading candidates for the position of Internal Revenue Commissioner.

Treasurer Hyatt will tender his resignation to the President at the first opportunity. Charles E. Coon, formerly Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, is reported to be an applicant for the position of Comptroller of the Currency. It is said, however, that Secretary Windom has requested him to resume his former position.

Mr. Buchard, formerly Director of the Mint, was a caller on the Secretary this morning and is said to be an applicant for this office, but Director Kimball has not signified his intention to resign until his term has expired. It is expected most of the Democratic bureau officers will send in their resignations and give the Secretary an opportunity of naming their successors.

NEW-YORK, March 7.—Ex-President Cleveland drove down in a carriage, this morning, from the Victoria Hotel to his law office in William-street. He was accompanied by Messrs. Stetson and MacVeagh.

IN CEILING INVESTIGATION, TO-DAY.

Expert who Examined Snaith's Account at Bank on the Stand.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, March 7.—The examination of James Yalden, the expert accountant, in relation to Snaith's accounts with the National Commercial Bank, of Albany, was the first work of the Special Ceiling Investigating Committee, to-day. Yalden testified that he had visited the Commercial Bank and had been afforded faciltics to examine Snaith's accounts. He had examined the accounts made between June, 1888, and March 4, 1889. On June 11, the credit balance was $528.73. On March 4, 1889, it was $39.92. The account divided itself into three classes—cash, discounts and State deposits. Between the dates named there was deposited in checks $150,255. Of this $32,872 were discounts, leaving the net cash deposited $117,283.

Matthew Hale, of counsel for Snaith, here desired to have entered on the record a formal protest against what he termed the unfairness of this proceeding. All he asked for his client was the ordinary rights of an American citizen.

Mr. Aspinwall, of the Committee, objected to any statement by Mr. Hale.

Chairman Fish directed counsel to desist, and ordered the stenographer not to take down any remarks of his.

Mr. Hale—"Then you refuse to allow my protest to be entered on the record?"

Mr. Fish—"The Committee has already decided that it will not allow any witness to appear by counsel. Counsel must stop."

Mr. Seward said: "If Snaith was here we would accord him the ordinary right of an American citizen by examining him."

OUTLAWS ATTACK RAILROAD MEN,

But are Worsted Finally and Two of Them Mortally Wounded.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, March 7.—Advices from East-Tennessee say a party of mountain desperadoes, headed by the notorious Clabe Watson, Lee Watson, William Turner and Judson Bell, attacked the camps of Hoy and Rivence railroad contractors, near Cumberland Gap, a few days ago. The ruffians were drunk and armed with Winchester rifles and large Colt's revolvers. They first overran the commissary department and ate or destroyed all the provisions. They then went to the shanties and cabins occupied by the negro laborers and beat several of them nearly to death. By this time Hays and Rivenac had gathered a number of their men together and opened fire on the desperadoes, and a pitched battle took place, in which Judson Bell and Lee Watson were mortally wounded and the remainder of the gang were driven away. The next day the railroaders, with officers Ingraham and Cavin, raided Yellow Creek and captured the desperate outlaw "Andy" Watson, who has terrorized Bell County for years. He was taken to Pineville jail. There are several indictments for murder against him. The railroad men have thoroughly armed themselves and say if the Kentucky authorities will back them up they will rid the Yellow Creek region of outlaws.

In the United States, at Philadelphia, To-Day; Story of His Life.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—Isaah V. Williamson, the venerable millionaire philanthropist, died at 4 o'clock this morning. Mr. Williamson was perhaps the richest bachelor in the United States. He was born at Penn Manor, Bucks County, Pa., 87 years ago. He was the son of a poor farmer. After working in a country store for some time he came to Philadelphia to seek his fortune and engaged in the dry goods business. He developed great business ability and retired with an immense fortune. Afterwards he became a prominent figure in financial circles. At the time of his death he was regarded the richest man in Philadelphia. Mr. Williamson never married, because, as he said, he was too busy for love affairs. He occupied nearly all his time in making money. He was very fond of dancing, however, and was always on the floor at the summer balls and hops at Saratoga for many years.

RUSSIA'S INFLUENCE IN SERVIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 7.—The Journal De St. Petersburg says: "Russia's interest in the Servians is strong enough to cause it to wish for them a better future under their young ruler and his trusty Councillors."

The Novoe Vrmya says: "The abdication of Milan is a natural sequence of his estrangement with Russia, which rendered his rule impossible. King Milan's turn arrived after that of Alexander, late Prince of Bulgaria. Roumania's turn may come soon."

Germany and Samoa.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BERLIN, March 7.—The Boersen Zeitung says the United States has proposed to refer that portion of the Samoan question concerning Germany and the United States alone to arbitration. Germany is not averse to this, but adheres to the opinion that the conference to be continued in Berlin should settle the questions involving Germany, Great Britain and the United States.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, March 7.—The dealings in the stock market this morning were more circumscribed than usual, a few shares, such as Union Pacific, St. Paul, Reading and New England furnishing a large proportion of the business, although there was a fairly active business throughout.

ZANZIBAR, March 7.—An Arab dhow arrived here yesterday and reported that it was boarded by an officer of a German gun-boat, who granted it a pass. Afterwards it was fired upon by other German gun-boats and its Captain was killed. This news created great excitement among the people of Zanzibar and crowds surrounded the Sultan's palace clamoring for revenge. The Sultan referred them to the German Consul.

TO CONTROL THE FLOUR OUT-PUT.

Combination Being Formed at a Secret Meeting of Western Millers.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ST. LOUIS, March 7.—For the last three days the millers of the winter wheat states have been holding a secret meeting here, for the purpose of forming a combine to control the flour out-put. Millers representing Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Arkansas, Texas, Illinois, Tennessee, Minnesota and Wisconsin were here and were joined yesterday by the South-Eastern States. They deny that they have formed any trust, and while this is true in the light that profits will not be divided, it is equally certain that a combine has been formed to control the flour market. A rule regarding commissions in flour was adopted. The commissions have been excessive, and the rule provides that not more than five or 10 cents shall be charged.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Indications for Friday: Fair, slightly cooler, north-westerly winds.

WELL, REALLY!

The great service of the administration has been its demonstration of the fact that while the Democratic party counts nearly as many adherents as the Republican, it is not a revolutionary party, and that the Union and government are perfectly safe under Democratic ascendency.—Harper's Weekly.

So the test of Democratic patriotism and usefulness has come to this, that it did not take advantage of its power to start a revolution! That is a lofty conception of duty to country surely! We believe, however, that Harper's Weekly expected something more than this when it went over to the Democratic party four years ago. It expected a thorough purification of the public service, not indeed by a Democratic clean sweep, but by the retention of efficient Republicans in office. It expected that the opening of the books would reveal a scandalous amount of stealing under past administrations. It expected a stern application of old fashioned economy and Jeffersonian simplicity. In all of these things it has been disappointed. The useful Republican officials were turned out, and wherever proved thieves were put in their places they were allowed to stay. The examination of the books revealed a deficiency of two cents which were afterwards swept up from the treasury floor where they had been dropped by one of the examiners. There has been no exceptional honesty in Democratic administration; on the contrary Ex-Secretary Fairchild has stated that the frauds in the New York custom house have amounted to millions. Jeffersonian simplicity has been at a discount, while waste and extravagance have run riot, and there has been a steady effort to ape the splendor of European courts. And at the elections the old Democratic tactics of fraud, intimidation and murder have been brought into full play, without provoking a word of remonstrance from Washington.

And now we are told that the administration has rendered great service to the country in not heading an actual revolution by its party. In the general summing up, this is the best that can be said for it. It is not a high compliment. We do not praise the boy as exceptionally good and peaceful who, on his return to school, refrains from thrashing the teacher, after having once been soundly thrashed himself in making the attempt. The boys who have never engaged in such an undertaking are entitled to a better character. As for a revolution, that would have been impossible without engaging again in armed rebellion. The Republican Senate stood squarely and firmly between the country and any scheme of revolutionizing the government that the executive might have advised or the lower house undertaken. And however much the old rebels in Congress might have yearned for another tilt at arms, they had a wholesome and restraining recollection of past occurrences. Their party had indeed numbered at the polls as large a force as the Republicans, but they knew that rebellion would let loose into entire freedom to bear arms a million men whose votes they had suppressed. There would then be another counting of the "adherents" of the two parties, and the Republican party would again have with it the big majority that carried the flag to Appomattox.

But while the Democratic party is able to "point with pride" to the fact that it did not again prove itself a revolutionary party, it went as far as it could in its endorsement of a previous revolution and rebellion. The Confederate soldiers in the Cabinet were to the Union soldiers there as two to one. Union soldiers by the hundred were turned out of places to make room for Confederates. The dependent pension bill for the benefit of Union veterans was vetoed, while the Mexican pension bill, a companion measure whose benefits inured almost wholly to Confederates, was approved. The vetoes of private pension bills for Union veterans and their dependents were almost numberless, while Mr. Cleveland's last official act was the veto of the direct tax bill, which would have restored to all the states that paid it the direct tax levied for the support of the war in 1861. And when he went out of office he carried away twenty-six pension bills, which were thus squelched by the pocket veto.

The only compliment which Harper's Weekly can find to bestow upon the departed administration is for refraining from the one act of revolution through armed rebellion that the Democratic party dared not undertake. Is the Weekly a fair eulogist? Is what it has said the best that could be said? The duty of answering devolves appropriately upon the mouthpieces of that party. We do not recall any real service rendered to the country by the party during its four years of political ascendency, except the practical extinguishment of a once very troublesome treasury surplus by the methods outlined by Secretary Fairchild in his references to the New York custom house.

What is the country's highest expectation of the Republican party on its return to power? That it will restrain itself from engaging in revolution or revolutionary schemes? We think not. The Democratic party is the only party in existence that feels itself complimented when thanked for not having done this thing.

KEENAN RAISING A FUND.

Boss Keenan of the New York Boodlers, assisted by other dwellers in the United States penal colony, has undertaken to buy up the Canadian Parliament. Last week Professor Weldon introduced a bill providing for the surrender to the United States of all criminals who have escaped from this country and are domiciled in the Dominion. Before introducing the bill Weldon made a quiet canvass among the members, and thinks he has secured enough unequivocal promises to assure its passage.

The movement threw the whole penal colony into alarm. A conference was at once arranged in Montreal between Keenan and John C. Eno, who stole $2,000,000 from the Second National Bank of New York, and the result is a concerted attempt to defeat the bill by bribery. Keenan at once communicated with his resident fellow boodlers, Dempsey, DeLacey and Sayles. The conferees sent him last Wednesday on a mission to Toronto, Hamilton and Windsor, to confer with other thieves, and he returned on Tuesday. He found in Toronto Thomas Axworthy, who stole $450,000 from the city of Cleveland, Ohio, H. D. Scholl, who stole $14,000 from the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, and H. G. Stickney, who stole $17,000 from C. L. Davenport of Boston. In Windsor he found John E. Sullivan, the Indianapolis County Clerk who defaulted for over $100,000, and Henry Dilckman who stole $60,000 from patrons in St. Louis. He found Joseph A. Moore, another Indianapolis thief who stole $500,000 from the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, residing in Kingston, the notorious Mother Mandlebaum of New York in Hamilton, and Amandus Ebert, a Cincinnati swindler to the tune of $15,000, in Montreal. Keenan and his conferees had agreed that $100,000 must be raised and possibly more, and on returning to Montreal he was able to report subscriptions to the amount of $23,000. It was believed possible to raise also $20,000 in Montreal, as Eno himself was believed to be reliable for $10,000 or $15,000, while an attempt was to be made to raise $20,000 from Canadian defaulters in the United States, since it was considered certain that the passage of the Weldon bill would be followed with reciprocal action by Congress.

Keenan, Eno and a lawyer in their employ are at Ottawa now, looking after the interests of the colony in Parliament. The counsel is "feeling" the members, and those who are found to be "impressionable" are given a quiet supper at Eno's rooms. These when they leave are supposed to find a "wad" in their pockets, placed there by some mysterious agency. The bill is expected to come up for second reading this week, and then attempts will be made to load it with absurd amendments and to delay action by dilatory motions. So uncertain are the boodlers, however, of preventing its passage, that they have already written to Billy Maloney at Amsterdam inquiring as to the desirability of that place for a health resort. Similar inquiries have been sent to Belgium, France, Spain, Italy and the Argentine Republic.

In the meantime Keenan finds that the most pressing need of the colony is an organ. His thoughts turn instinctively to one or two Democratic newspapers on this side of the line which he has braced up, and he wonders whether they will not come over and help him. Here is a fine opening for a grateful friend.

ABSENT WITNESSES.

It has been ascertained in Albany that Contractor Snaith of Assembly ceiling fame has been in Philadelphia and is on his way to Florida. This fact was brought to light before the Assembly investigating committee yesterday by James F. Maguire, Snaith's employe. He testified that he went to Philadelphia last Saturday and met Snaith. After a talk with him he returned to Albany and drew $2,500 from the bank, which he carried to his employer along with his books. Snaith's coachman also testified that Snaith and Architect Rowe had a consultation last Wednesday evening. Rowe had his bag already packed, and soon afterwards both gentlemen left town, Snaith taking enough baggage to last him several months. Rowe is understood to have started for Memphis, and it is possible that he has continued his journey to New Orleans. Mrs. Snaith was seen in Philadelphia with her husband, and their elaborate arrangements for travel indicate an intention to remain away till after the adjournment of the Legislature. A lawyer named Frothingham, in the employ of Snaith, said last night that the latter would reappear with his books whenever the Committee would permit him to be represented by counsel.

The disappearance of these witnesses is a confession of guilt. They showed no fear in the investigation by the Appropriations Committee; indeed, Mr. Snaith defiantly produced his books against the advice of his counsel, Matthew Hale. But the present committee has excited different emotions.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The solemn oath of office was probably never before administered to a President of the United States by a Chief Justice with mustachios like the wings of a spread eagle. —New York Sun.

When Mr. Cleveland's administration entered upon its existence, the postal system of the country was in a high state of efficiency When it was retired by the people, the postal system had become almost hopelessly demoralized. It is hoped that the first broom of the new administration will be placed in the vigorous hands of Postmaster-General Wanamaker.—Buffalo News.

Much time and thought were expended in its construction, but at last President Harrison has a Cabinet which will stand firm as a rock.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

The next Congress should promptly amend its rules so as to prevent the obstruction of business by a single member to gratify his own spite or compel attention to some particular scheme. It can be done with an entirely adequate protection to the rights of minorities.—Providence Journal, Dem.

Cleveland did not run away with the continent during his four years, and the Democratic party did not dissolve the Union or break down protection; but there is every reason for feeling easier when the term of power by the party dominated by the Confederates is at an end.—Binghamton Republican.

There is a bill before the Legislature of Arkansas to prohibit detectives of other states from crossing the boundary lines of the commonwealth in search of law-breakers. This of course means that Arkansas does not want anyone to run down the wretch who assassinated the Republican nominee for Congress, John M. Clayton.—Troy Times.

In President Harrison's Cabinet may be found men who have made successful efforts in such varied fields of activity as farming, commerce and trade, manufacturing, law, politics, diplomacy, statesmanship and war. They represent pretty nearly every department of human industry in some form or other.—New York Graphic.

It is noticeable that some newspapers which contended before election that the repeal of the internal duties on whisky would make whisky free now contend that the repeal of the tobacco taxes will not make tobacco free. Still, they are violently opposed to the repeal in either case, because (though they do not say so) they are for Free Trade and want the revenue reduced by cutting off the customs duties; so anything does for an "argument" with them.—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

Are the months in which to purify the blood, as the system is now most susceptible to benefit from medicine. Hence now is the time to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, a medicine peculiarly adapted for the purpose, possessing peculiar curative powers. It expels every impurity from the blood, and also gives it vitality and richness. SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at VanDeusen Brothers, Rondout, and F. J. R. Clark's, Kingston, Drug Stores.

SENSIBLE PEOPLE

will have nothing to do with "cure-alls"—medicines that are advertised to cure everything from a chilblain to a broken neck. Read the list of diseases that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure! Affections of the throat and lungs, incipient consumption, disordered liver, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, ulcers, tumors and swellings caused by scrofula and bad blood; fever and ague and dropsy. This seems like a cure-all, but it is not. This great "Discovery" will really cure all these complaints simply because it purifies the blood upon which they depend and builds up the weak places of the body. By druggists.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not. Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

"MY KINGDOM FOR A HORSE,"

But if he suffers from scratches, cracks, cuts, galls or wounds of any kinds, Veterinary Hop Ointment is warranted to cure. Never fails. $1.00 a box. At all druggists.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

HE WAS UP IN MYTHOLOGY.

"Father," said little Johnny Smith, "I saw something in the paper about the Pillars of Hercules. What were they?" "The Pillars of Hercules," replied Mr. Smith, "were that gentleman's doctors, of course." Ten years ago Dr. Tutt's Little Liver Pills had a reputation only in the United States. Now they are used all over the globe, wherever torpid liver, dyspepsia, costiveness, sick headache and malaria prevail.

OUR LITTLE SON.

Four years old, afflicted with a painful skin disease. Six doctors tried to cure him; all Failed. Got worse and worse. Completely cured by one set of Cuticura Remedies, costing $1.75.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th instant. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the Cuticura, and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura, and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

SCROFULOUS HUMORS.

Last spring I was very sick, being covered with some kind of scrofula. The doctors could not help me. I was advised to try Cuticura Resolvent. I did so, and in a day I grew better and better, until I am as well as ever. I thank you for it very much, and would like to have it told to the public.

Choking Catarrh.

Have you awaked from a disturbed sleep with all the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, clouding the memory and filling the head with pains and strange noises! How difficult it is to rid the nasal passages, throat and lungs of this poisonous mucus all can testify who are afflicted with catarrh. How difficult to protect the system against its further progress towards the lungs, liver and kidneys, all physicians will admit. It is a terrible disease, and cries out for relief and cure.

The remarkable curative powers, when all other remedies utterly fail, of Sanford's Radical Cure, are attested by thousands who gratefully recommend it to fellow-sufferers. No statement is made regarding it that cannot be substantiated by the most respectable and reliable references.

Each packet contains one bottle of Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and an Improved Inhaler, with treatise and directions, and is sold by all druggists for $1.00.

If taken as soon as you feel that irritation or dryness of the throat, occasioned by a cold, four to six doses will cure.

It won't cure a horrible sore throat in one night, nor in fact will it cure anything in that space of time. It takes at least a day or so to cure a cold, but

IT GETS THERE ALL THE SAME.

It stops your cough almost at once, but should you stop taking it after two or three doses probably your cough would return. One thing you can always be sure of: Long before you have emptied the bottle you will be "all O. K."

As a trial of this truly wonderful medicine costs nothing, and as 95 cases out of every 100 will be cured it is well worth your while to at least make the trial.

TERRIFIED PASSENGERS.

TRAIN FIRED INTO BY MEN WITH SHOT GUNS NEAR CHICAGO.

People Who Were Injured—White Cap Outrage in Kansas—Woman Who Died of Fright and Fatigue—Excitement—Other Telegraph News.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, March 7.—The Cincinnati Express which came in on the Louisville, New-Albany & Chicago Railroad last evening brought a badly-scared lot of passengers. Two hours before reaching Chicago the train was fired upon by an unknown man who took deliberate aim at the rear coach and sent two loads of duck-shot crashing through the windows. Some of the passengers narrowly escaped. The shooting took place at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The train, an unusually large one, was behind time and was running at a high rate of speed, not stopping at small stations. When a mile south of Rose Lawn, a station in Indiana, 56 miles from Chicago, the engineer noticed two men standing near the track. One had a double-barreled shot-gun. Supposing they were hunters, he paid no especial attention to them. The men stood motionless until the last coach was abreast of them, when the man with the gun leveled it and fired both barrels. It made a loud report and the terrified passengers sprang from their seats as the shot crashed through the windows, and sent a shower of broken glass flying over the car. For an instant they were almost paralyzed with fear, but realizing what had happened, some ran to the rear door, and saw the men still standing by the track. An instant later the train sped around a curve. One of the passengers jerked the bell-cord, but there was so much slack that the gong in the locomotive cab did not ring. The train could not be stopped until a passenger ran ahead to the baggage-car, where the Conductor was found, and by that time several miles had been covered and the Conductor would not turn back. An examination of the coach showed that the last four windows on the left side were smashed to atoms. The outside of the car was riddled with shot, and a handful of the missiles was picked up from the car floor. Several of the passengers were slightly cut in the hands and face by broken glass, and T. S. Tanner, of Chicago, found a shot embedded in his scalp. The Railroad Company has sent out officers to hunt down the miscreants.

WHITE CAP OUTRAGE IN KANSAS.

Man's Wife Dies of Fright and Fatigue; Warrant for Arrest Seemed.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WICHITA, Kans., March 7.—Ira Campbell, of this City, moved to a farm near here on Tuesday, and at 10 o'clock at night he was visited by a dozen White Caps, who made their presence known by firing several rounds at the roof of the house. The Captain called Campbell and told him he must leave the house with his family by midnight or they would be killed. Campbell, fearing the worst, put his family in a wagon and reached his former home here yesterday morning. His wife had been ill for some days and the fright and fatigue made her so much worse that she died last evening. Campbell says the party was well disguised, but he thinks he knows one member and a warrant has been sworn out for his arrest. There is much excitement here over the affair and threats of lynching are made.

EARLVILLE, Ills., March 7.—Last night Daniel McLochlan, aged 22, killed Cora Carnohan, aged 13, and then committed suicide. The pair eloped Sunday night from Paw Paw, Ils., and had a weary time of it eluding detectives.

Milton Matters.

Miss Mabel Cubbard is visiting in New-York and Newark, N. J.

C. S. Roe, who, in 1830, resided in Milton, predicted, in an issue of the National Pioneer, a four-page paper published in this village in 1829-30, that in 75 years from the date of his communication Milton would rank with the large villages on the Hudson River. In closing his article he wrote: "Milton will ever be, as she is to-day, the center of the commercial gravity of this section."

The first Pastor of the Milton M. E. Church was the Rev. D. W. C. VanGaasbeek, who preached here in 1858 and 1859. The following pastors have since that time occupied the pulpit: In 1860, the Rev. J. A. Edwards; 1861 and 1862, the Rev. J. W. Smith; 1863, the Rev. N. Hunt; 1864 and 1865, the Rev. E. S. Osbon; 1866 and 1867, the Rev. J. Craft; 1868 and 1869, the Rev. D. SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

Young wives who have old husbands will be glad to know that a New-York physician offers to cure snoring for ten dollars; but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure sore throats and colds for 25 cents.

A LUCKY MAN.

Mr. Lyman Crawford, Druggist, of Springfield, Mass., says: For years I was afflicted with kidney disease in its worst form, and I state, with a perfect recollection of all that was done for me, that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., gave me permanent relief.

If your druggist does not keep the medicine, address the proprietor, Rondout, N. Y.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourbon, Ind. says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

I suffered from a very severe cold in my head for months and used everything recommended but could get no relief. Was advised to use Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like magic in its cure. I am free from my cold after using the Balm one week, and I believe it is the best remedy known. Feeling grateful for what it has done for me I send this testimonial.—Samuel J. Harris, Wholesale Grocer, 119 Front-street, New York.

ELECTRIC BITTERS.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers. For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle at VanDeusen Bros. Rondout, and F. J. R. Clark's, Kingston, Drug Stores.

POSITIVELY UGLY FACES

Can be made clear and attractive. Those horrid pimples and blotches can be removed by one application of Hop Ointment. Never fails. Take no other. 25 cents, at druggists, or mail stamps to the Hop Co., New-London, Conn.

Sick headache is readily cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones and regulates the digestion, and creates an appetite.

There is no one article in the line of medicines that gives so large a return for the money as a good porous strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Bachache Plasters.

Avoid Appearances.—A worthy gentleman, having an unusually red nose, was long suspected of being a tippler on the sly, by those not acquainted with his strictly temperate habits. His unfortunate disfigurement was readily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

INTERESTED PEOPLE.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50 cents and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

A HAPPY WOMAN.

Happy is the woman without bodily ills, but happier is the woman who having them knows of the saving properties of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When relieved, as she surely will be upon a trial of it, she can contrast her condition with her former one of suffering and appreciate health as none can who have not for a time been deprived of it. The "Favorite Prescription" corrects unnatural discharges and cures all "weakness" and irregularities.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind-colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

THEY "MEAN BUSINESS."

For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have offered in good faith $500 reward for a case of Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. This wonderful remedy has fairly attained a world-wide reputation. If you have dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, purulent, bloody and putrid; if the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; if there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers, the voice being changed and has a nasal twang; the breath offensive; smell and taste impaired; sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility, you are suffering from nasal catarrh. The more complicated your disease, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians.

LOST.—"I don't know where, I can't tell when, I don't see how—something of great value to me, and for the return of which I shall be truly thankful, viz: a good appetite."

FOUND.—"Health and strength, pure blood, an appetite like that of a wolf, regular digestion, all by taking that popular and peculiar medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. I want everybody to try it this season." It is sold by all druggists. One hundred doses one dollar.

CASHIER

William E. Durgin, of the Boston Loan Co., 275 Washington-street, says: "I recommend Sulphur Bitters as the very best medicine I have ever used. Weak lungs are soothed and strengthened by wearing a Hop Plaster. Never fails to do good.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend he Favorite Remedy. It was

and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kemptoc, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

FIRE DESTROYS A TANNERY

AT SHOKAN, AT AN EARLY HOUR THIS MORNING.

The Building Entirely Consumed, Together With a Large Amount of Stock—The Loss and Insurance—Thrown Out of Employment.

At about 2 o'clock this morning, the large tannery owned by McKinstry & Deyo, at Shokan, was discovered on fire. An effort was made by people of the place to save the building from total destruction, but their efforts were fruitless, the structure soon being reduced to a pile of smoldering ashes.

IN THE LOFTS.

In the lofts of the tannery were stored many bundles of leather, all of which were consumed. Most of the stock in the vats is believed to be uninjured.

LOADED WITH BARK.

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE.

The fire is believed to have originated in the bark mill, as flames were first discovered there. A high wind was blowing, and the fire burned rapidly, which prevented the saving of any of the stock in the building. The flames lit up the surrounding country.

THROWN OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.

A large number of men are thrown out of employment by the disaster, and the loss will be felt by the people of the place as well as by the owners.

LOSS AND INSURANCE.

An effort was made to-day to learn the loss and insurance, but neither McKinstry nor Deyo could be found, they having left the place early this morning on business. It is understood, however, that the tannery and stock were not fully insured.

WILL PROBABLY REBUILD.

Messrs. McKinstry and Deyo expect to rebuild the tannery as soon as the insurance is settled. They have about 1,500 tons of bark on hand and have engaged 500 tons to be delivered this spring.

OPENING OF NAVIGATION IS NEAR.

The Ice on the Hudson River is Slowly Wearing Away.

The Hudson River is now comparatively clear from ice for several miles north of this City. Occasionally a mass of broken ice could be seen floating past the mouth of the Rondout Creek, to-day, though not sufficient to impede the progress of the ferry-boat Transport. Yesterday the ice was reported as being "on the move" as far north as Albany, and large fields crashed into one another at various places. It is reported there is an ice jam at New-Baltimore, where the channel is narrow, and that it will require a few days of warm weather to break it up. At Crum Elbow, about four miles this side of Highland, the ice is still reported to be blockaded and heaped up many feet in height, though above that point the Hudson is clear. On the east and west shores of the Hudson there is still considerable ice, but it is said to be so thin that no difficulty would be experienced if navigation were at once resumed.

Boatmen, however, do not favor an opening of navigation for at least a month to come. They argue there is not enough business to be done at present.

BOATS AND BOATMEN.

The boiler of the propeller S. L. Crosby is being repaired in Rondout.

A large brick scow on Allen Brothers' shipyard, Ponckhockie, is nearly completed.

The steamers of the Cornell Steamboat Company present a bright appearance in their spring suits of paint.

The owners of the steamboat Ansonia, at Saugerties, will occupy the two lower storehouses in the Creek this season.

The barge A. S. Staples, which has been lying at East Kingston during the past winter, was yesterday towed to the Railroad Dock, Ponckhockie, where it is being laden with cordwood for Staples' brickyard.

MINOR NOTES AROUND THIS TOWN.

At the annual session of Ulster Lodge, I. O. G. T., which was held in the rooms of Rondout Lodge, No. 730, in the Newkirk building, Union-avenue, Rondout, yesterday, after the election and installation of officers—as published in THE FREEMAN of last evening—matters pertaining to the good of the order were considered, and phases of the work were discussed. It was decided that a lecturer be engaged to work through Ulster County in the interest of the County Lodge. The first lecture will be given in this City on March 19. The next quarterly session of the Lodge will be held at Creek Locks, June 5.

SHE BECAME VIOLENTLY INSANE.

An Ulster County Woman Taken to an Asylum—Facts.

An elderly widow named Maria Jansen, a resident of Napanoch, Ulster County, while on a visit to her brother, P. M. Goothes, of Catskill, became violently insane. The County Judge of Greene County directed officers to take her to Ulster County to be examined. She was brought before County Judge William S. Kenyon, Kingston, on Wednesday. She was examined by Drs. Robert and E. H. Loughran, pronounced insane, and an order was made sending her to the Middletown Insane Asylum.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BARN TO-DAY.

Sudden Death of a Marlborough Fruit Grower—Inquest to be Held.

A dispatch to THE FREEMAN from Marlborough, this afternoon, stated: P. H. Lawrence, a well known Marlborough fruit grower, was found dead in his barn here, at noon, to-day. It is believed that death was caused by heart disease. He was apparently in the best of health when last seen alive by relatives. A Coroner's inquest will be held.

Assignment.

A general assignment was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by Andrew B. Krom, a crockery merchant of Kingston, to Martin Hauver. The preferences were made in the following order: Expenses of assignment; employes; note of Martin Hauver, $600, held by Ulster County National Bank; note of Hauver for $200, money loaned; note endorsed by Wells L. Schoonmaker for $350; note of Wells L. Schoonmaker for $230, money loaned.

BRIEF SKETCH OF LATE MRS. MC ENTEE

Was Probably Oldest Native-Born Resident of this Place.

The funeral of Mrs. Christina McEntee, widow of the late Charles McEntee, who died at the residence of her son, Colonel John McEntee, Rondout, on Tuesday night, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Irving Magee, Pastor of the Wurts-Street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The funeral was attended by many sympathizing friends.

Mrs. McEntee had attained the eightieth year of her age, and at the time of her death was probably the oldest native born resident of this place. She was a lady of those rare and gentle graces, which do not assert themselves, but which never fail of recognition among those of refinement and culture. She loved retirement and pursued a walk of such quiet goodness that only the intimate few learned to know the charm of her beautiful life. The innate and finer traits were seen less in herself perhaps than in her children, to whom she bequeathed them. But it was these that shone out so clearly in her later life and made the close of it becoming and peaceful. Mrs. McEntee was the daughter of William Tremper and Ann Tappen, her ancestors being among the oldest inhabitants of this City. She was born in the house now occupied by John R. Stebbins, and with the exception of a few years of temporary absence, she has always resided here. She had been associated with the chief events that go to make up the history of this City, and her departure narrows down to a very small limit those who can see back to the beginning of things here. She never severed her connection with the Rondout Presbyterian Church. She was the last one of its original members, a firm believer in its teachings and a faithful follower of Christ. Her reminiscences of this place and people were vivid and interesting, as her recollection covered many years of observation, combined with the experiences of an active and thoughtful life. Four children survive her, Colonel John McEntee, Mrs. Julia Dillon, Mrs. F. O. Norton and Mrs. Theodore Brown. In their sorrow they may regard with satisfaction a life so worthy and an end so peaceful.

OTHER DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. John Campbell was held from St. Joseph's Church, Kingston, yesterday. The Rev. Edward McCue, Assistant Pastor, officiated. There was a large attendance.

The funeral of Mrs. Wilhelmina Ertelt, of Rondout, was held this afternoon. Services were held in the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, and there was a large attendance. The Rev. M. Schmidtkonz officiated.

SOME PHASES OF THE SEAMY SIDE.

Arrested and Locked Up—Sent to the Albany Penitentiary.

John McCormick, of Catskill, has been sent to the Albany Penitentiary for six months for brutally assaulting a four-year old boy. He was arrested by an officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

A dispatch from Troy to THE FREEMAN, to-day, stated: William Taylor was arraigned before Justice Grogan, of West-Troy, this morning, on suspicion of murdering his mother, Mrs Catherine Taylor, on Monday night. Taylor was committed to await the result of the Coroner's inquest, which will be held Monday night. He denies all knowledge of the crime. The axe with which the murder was committed has not been found.

William Burke, the man who stabbed John Boylan in the side at Egbert Humphrey's Hotel, town of Kingston, on Tuesday night, was arrested, yesterday, and locked up in the Ulster County Jail in Kingston. The warrant was issued for Burke's arrest by Philip Cahill, a Justice of the Peacee of that town. Burke claims that he did the stabbing in self-defense. Boylan's escape from instant death, it is said, was narrow, and there are fears that inflammation or internal hemorrhage will set in, in which case he will probably die. The case was sent to the Grand Jury. The defendant waived examination.

RECORDER'S COURT.

Two young men said to be residents of Connecticut, were arrested in Rondout to-day by Deputy Sheriff Cassidy for intoxication and disorderly conduct. They will be taken before the Recorder.

A man, who gave as his name Charles Meyer, was arraigned before Recorder Hussey this forenoon for "stealing rides" on the West Shore Railroad. He was sentenced to the Ulster County Jail, at Kingston, for 30 days.

AFFAIRS OF FRIENDLY SOCIETIES.

Royal Arch Degree Conferred Upon Candidates—Quartette Club.

A. Schultz, Permanent Secretary of Adler Lodge, No. 388, I. O. O. F., of Poughkeepsie, has been presented with a gold-headed cane by the members of the Lodge.

The entertainment given by the members of the Rondout Quartette Club, one night recently, at Alligerville, Ulster County, was highly appreciated by a large audience.

At the regular convocation of Mount Horeb Chapter, No. 75, R. A. M., in Kingston, last evening, the Royal Arch Degree was ably and impressively conferred upon three candidates, visiting Companions from Highland Chapter, No. 52, of Newburgh, occupying the principal stations, as follows: Most Excellent Charles Estabrook, as High Priest; Companion Cornelius S. Gibb [the present District Deputy Grand Master of the Tenth Masonic District], as Captain of the Host; Companion Edward M. Murtfeldt, as Principal Sojourner; Companion William H. Fowler, Master of the First Vail. At the conclusion of the degree a banquet was served in the dining hall adjoining the lodge room. At the next regular convocation, on Wednesday, March 20, the Mark Master's Degree will be conferred.

BOVINA, DELAWARE CO. MAN MISSING.

A Reward of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars is Offered.

Two hundred and fifty dollars' reward has been offered for the discovery of the whereabouts of Frederick McFarland, late a resident of Bovina, Delaware County, N. Y., who was last seen when a Grand Juryman at Delhi on February 21, 1889. The same reward will be paid for the body of McFarland if dead. McFarland is, or was, a farmer, about 52 years old, of medium size, light hair and red whiskers and moustache mixed with gray. When last seen he wore a soft black hat, dark clothes and no overcoat.

A Shameful Sight.

On Union-street, Rondout, last night, a woman, beastly intoxicated, and carrying a child in her arms, staggered and fell into a large ash-box. She was accompanied by a man who said he was her husband. He, too, was intoxicated. On being questioned the woman said she lived in Poughkeepsie.

Man and Horse Both Dead.

A man named Hugh Clemments, of West Ghent, Columbia County, went to Stockport, Tuesday, and imbibed freely of intoxicants. On returning in the evening he drove off an embankment, and on Wednesday was found dead on the body of his horse, which was also dead.

Case of Local Interest.

Among the causes argued before the Second Division of the Court of Appeals at Albany to-day was the case of James E. Ostrander, of Kingston, respondent, vs. John Weber, Rondout, appellant, et al., argued by J. W. Fiero for appellant; John F. Cloonan for respondent.

Going Back.

Large figures and large plaids abound in the material displayed for spring costumes for ladies, and many articles for wearing apparel are patterned after styles in vogue a hundred years ago.

Enlarged.

Mead's Mountain House has been enlarged for the season of 1889.

SOME ELECTION DAY ECHOES

ULSTER COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS A TIE.

The Result in Towns—The New Board of Aldermen of This City—Political News From Other Places—Some Facts and Figures.

Returns received by THE FREEMAN to-day show that the newly-elected Board of Supervisors of this County is a tie, as was published in last evening's issue. This may result in a deadlock over the election of a Chairman, as was the case three years ago, when 176 ballots were taken before an agreement was arrived at.

The Board of Aldermen of this City is also a tie, but a Republican Mayor presides.

IN ULSTER COUNTY.

The majority of Herman Craft, for Supervisor, town of Marbletown, is 252.

Walter W. Cox, Democrat, town of Wawarsing, has a majority of 147 for Supervisor.

The majority of John H. Davis, Republican, for Supervisor in the town of Rochester, is 15.

In the town of Shawangunk Walstein Childs, Democrat, was elected Supervisor by 108 majority.

In the town of Shandaken George Lament, Democrat, was elected Supervisor by 51 majority. The total number of votes cast was 651.

Radcliff Delamater has again been elected Town Clerk of Marbletown. He has held the office since the year 1851 with the exception of two years.

One thousand less votes were cast on Tuesday in the town of Saugerties than at last fall's election. The total vote is less than 1,700. Last fall the vote was 2,700.

The majority of Alfred Reynolds, Republican, for Supervisor, over William F. Cooper, Democrat, was 18. The rest of the Republican ticket was elected by majorities ranging from 48 to 136.

Uriah VanEtten, Republican Supervisor, had a majority of 246 over E. P. Simmons, Democrat, in the town of Saugerties. Every candidate on the Republican ticket was elected with the exception of Excise Commissioner.

IN OTHER COUNTIES.

In the town of Lexington, Greene County, Christopher Riley, Democrat, was elected Supervisor.

The incorporation of Middletown as a City last year adds four members to the Orange County Board of Supervisors, making 26 in all. The Board this year will stand Democrats 18, Republicans eight. Last year's Board consisted of 14 Democrats and eight Republicans.

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

American Opera Company Coming—Miss Settie Blume—Barry and Fay.

The entertainments given by the Irving Club Minstrels, at Saugerties, this week, have been largely attended and successful.

The American Opera Company will be at Kingston Opera House, on Wednesday evening, March 20. This Company numbers 80 people.

At the Academy of Music, this City, on March 18, Professor George Bartholomew and his "Equine Paradox" will give an entertainment. The animals are said to be remarkably intelligent, and perform many astonishing tricks.

The Jersey City Evening Journal has said the following of Miss Settie Blume, of New-York, who, with Miss S. Crosby, of Rondout, will assist at an entertainment in Liscomb's Opera House, on March 18, for the benefit of the Congregation Emanuel: "Miss Blume's readings gave evidence of careful study on her part, and the efforts of this gifted young artist must soon give her a high position."

On Friday night Barry and Fay, well known Irish comedians, will appear in Liscomb's Opera House, Rondout, in the laughable comedy entitled 'McKenna's Flirtation.' The Chicago Inter-Ocean says of the play: "Barry and Fay, in McKenna's Flirtation," attracted another large audience last evening at the Academy. These clever comedians have congenial roles in their new comedy, and appear destined to duplicate the success they achieved in 'Muldoon's Picnic.' Lotta occupied a box at the Sunday matinee, and seemed to be highly entertained at the fund of fun developed in the 'Flirtation.'"

THE CONSTABLES SPECULATING

As to Which Two of Their Number Will be the "Lot."

At the first meeting of this City's Common Council a new law relative to Constables will be enforced, under Chapter 24, Laws of New-York, entitled "An act to amend Section 16 of the laws of 1872, entitled an act to incorporate the City of Kingston." Section 16 says:

All officers appointed or elected under this act, except Mayor, Recorder, Justice of the Peace, Assessors, Aldermen and Constables, and also and except as further excepted in this act, shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors shall qualify; but of such four Constables as shall be elected at the charter election next ensuing, the Common Council at its first meeting thereafter shall choose, by lot, two Constables to serve for one year and two to serve for two years; and thereafter two Constables shall be elected each year to serve for two years, one of whom shall be a resident of the First, Second, Eighth or Ninth Wards, and one of the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth or Seventh Wards.

This law creates considerable speculation among the Constables. To name the officers who shall serve two years by "lot" is considered by them as meaning by "chance" of some kind and not by ballot. The foregoing law was approved by the Governor May 4, 1888, and hence was too late to enforce its provisions last year.

Sporting Matters Noted.

The members of the Saugerties Game and Fish Club will hold their annual meeting on Friday evening.

There have been 40,000 trout fry placed in the Shingle Kill and Kiskatom Creeks in Greene County.

The second annual dog show opened in Albany, Tuesday, under favorable auspices. The number of fine canines entered is remarkably large.

It is said that the New-York Club will use a Delaware & Hudson Canal mule the coming base ball season as a mascot. If the Club does there is no doubt but that the championship pennant will remain where it is, as those animals have acquired a reputation of "knocking out" anything placed against them.

Mistaken Idea.

It is a mistaken idea of some people that the law makes it the duty of Inspectors of Election to file the returns of the spring elections with the County Clerk. The law only applies to fall elections. The only return to be made to the County Clerk is a notification by the Town Clerks of the election of Justices of the Peace, etc., officers who must place their signatures on the County Clerk's book.

Many Bears were Killed.

R. E. Best, of Kingston, said, this forenoon, that during his 38 years' residence in this City, he has never seen so many bear skins sold here in one season as the past winter. The skins of 13 bears killed in the Catskill Mountains were disposed of in Kingston. Many were sent to New-York and other places. This shows that a large number of bears were killed in the Catskills this year.

Ice Notes.

The Knickerbocker Ice Company ceased ice gathering operations at Coxsackie at 8:15 o'clock on Saturday.

A. S. Washburn, of North Germantown, finished filling his ice house, on Saturday. He has 12,000 tons of ice of fine quality.

Preparing His Message.

Mayor Newkirk is preparing his message to be delivered before the Common Council, of this City, next Monday at the City Hall.

WHEN A HAM-BONE TASTED SWEET.

An Incident That Occurred During the War—Comment.

A portly Kingston citizen entered a meat market, this morning, and said: "I guess I'll take a small ham." While the marketman was tying up the ham the citizen remarked: "I never buy a ham but that I think of an incident that happened during the war. My regiment had been hurried up in Marvland to help the boys at Gettysburgh. We left our knapsacks and everything else that might impede our movements in Washington. We hadn't time to draw rations before starting out, and the result was that, after a day and a night's tramping, we found that we were footsore and hungry, without anything to satisfy our cravings. I was so tired that I laid down in the grass by the roadside and fell asleep. When I awoke my hunger fairly gnawed my vitals. A group of officers sat about 30 feet away from me, as tired as I was. They were discussing the quality of a ham bone which one of the number had obtained. They passed it from one to the other, each taking a bite. When they had eaten off about all the meat, one of them gave it a toss, and it fell in the grass. I crawled up to where that bone was, and eagerly grasped it. It was the sweetest meat, I thought, I had ever eaten." "It don't look much like it now, does it?" said the marketman, as he surveyed the citizen's ample proportions.
